With Their Early History in Ireland

BY

ALBERT COOK MYERS, M.L.

Member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania

"There is not one of the family but what likes the country very well and wod If we were in Ireland again come here Directly it being the best country for working folk & tradesmen of any in the world, but for Drunkards and Idlers, they cannot live well any where."—Letter of an Irish Quaker, 1725.

THE AUTHOR

SWARTHMORE, PENNSYLVANIA

By far the most important and comprehensive of these letters is that written by Robert Parke (1694/5–1736/7), of near Chester, to his sister Mary, wife of Thomas Valentine, of Ballybrumhill, County Carlow, and as it throws such a flood of light on all phases of our subject, I venture to insert it in full. But first, a few details about the Parke family, by way of introduction, will give a better understanding of the migration of a representative Irish Quaker family. Robert Parke's Letter, 1725

Thomas Parke (1660–1738), the father of Robert Parke, was a farmer and owned several tracts of land in Ballilean, Ballaghmore, and Coolisnacktah, County Carlow. On May 21, 1724, with all of his family, excepting two married daughters, he took passage at Dublin, on the ship Sizargh, of Whitehaven, Jeremiah Cowman, master, and after a rough passage of three months, on August 21st arrived in Delaware Bay. Thomas leased a property from an Irish Friend, Mary Head, near Chester, as a temporary home, but on December 2d, purchased 500 acres from another Irish Friend, Thomas Lindley, in the Great Valley of Chester County, on the west side of what is now Downingtown, where he removed and lived the remainder The Parke Family Emigrate of his life. His son Robert was a clerk at Chester, and for some years acted as Recorder of Deeds. Robert died unmarried.[1] The letter is as follows:

CHESTER TOWNSHIP the — of the 10th Mo. 1725.

DEAR SISTER MARY VALENTINE,[2]

Parke's Letter

This goes with a Salutation of Love to thee, Brother Thomas & the children & in a word to all friends Relations & well Wishers in Generall as if named, hoping it may find you all in Good Health, as I with all our family in General are in at this present writing & has been since our arival, for we have not had a days Sickness in the family Since we came to the Country, Blessed be god for it, my father in Particular has not had his health better these ten years than since he Came here, his ancient age considered. Our Irish Acquaintance in general are well Except Thos Lightfoot who Departed this Life at Darby in a Good old age about 4 weeks Since.

[1] Parke Family, in Futhey and Cope's History of Chester County, 673; A sketch of the Parke Family, by James Pemberton Parke, of Philadelphia, in the Chester County Journal, issued at Downingtown, Chester County, Feb. 8, 1868. According to J. P. Parke, Robert Parke kept a journal of the passage over in 1724, and also of a voyage made back to England and Ireland, in 1727; likewise of the return voyage in 1728, when the list of passengers included sixty-three servants, of whom six were brought over by Parke himself. Unfortunately, I have been unable to locate these MS. journals, which no doubt would contain many interesting details of sea-travel during the period we have under consideration.

[2] See Taylor Papers (MSS.), Hist. Soc. of Penna.; letter is printed in Penna. Mag., V., 349–352.

Thee writes in thy letter than there was a talk went back to Ireland that we were not Satisfied in coming here, which was Utterly false: now let this Suffice to Convince you. In the first place he that carried back this Story was an Idle fellow, & one of our Ship-Mates, but not thinking this country Suitable to his Idleness; went back with Cowman again, he is Sort of a Lawyer, or Rather a Lyar as I may term him, therefore I wod not have you give credit to Such false reports for the future, for there is not one of the family but what likes the country very well and wod If we were in Ireland again come here Directly it being the best country for working folk & tradesmen of any in the world, but for Drunkards and Idlers, they cannot live well any where, it is likewise an Extradin healthy country.

False Reports

A Good Country for Working Folk

We were all much troubled when we found you did not come in with Capt. Cowman as we Expected nor none of our acquaintance Except Isaac Jackson & his family, tho at his coming in one thinks it Something odd but that is soon over.

Land is of all Prices Even from ten Pounds, to one hundred pounds a hundred, according to the goodness or else the Situation thereof, & Grows dearer every year by Reason of Vast Quantities of People that come here yearly

The most exciting social event of 1981 is without doubt the stunning pageantry that was the royal wedding of Lady Diana Frances Spencer to the Prince of Wales. The news media noted that Lady Diana had many American relatives.

The source of this information was Boston Genealogist Gary Boyd Roberts, who was the principal speaker at the Parke Society Reunion in Lebanon CT six years ago. He is the author of The Mowbray Connection, which traces the royal descent of 425 American immigrants. Among these are the three daughters of Alice Freeman Thompson Parke, the second wife of Robert[1] Parke. Her daughter Dorothy became the wife of Robert's son Thomas in 1644 at Wethersfield CT.

So it is of special interest to the descendants of Robert[1] and Thomas[2] that they now learn that they are cousins of the future Queen of England. The chart on page 4 shows several lineages from the four granddaughters of Thomas[2] and Dorothy Thompson. That you weren't invited to the wedding was of course an unfortunate oversight! (By quick calculation I have found Diana to be my 7th cousin 3 times removed - ie, her great-grandmother is my 7th cousin. The Prince and my wife Jill are her 7th cousins once removed.)

The British press states that Prince Charles could not have married anyone the British people would have liked more. It is a most awesome undertaking for a girl of 20. Diana is the first Princess of Wales since 1910 and only the ninth since Joan, "the fair maid of Kent", "hitched up" with Edward the Black Prince in 1361. In her new royal position, she is automatically facing 170 official engagements per year: Royal Ascot, Trooping of the Colors, Opening Parliament, Badminton Horse Trials, Chelsea Flower Show, Cowes Regatta, and Wimbleton to name a few.

With Queen Elizabeth not yet 60, it seems evident that Charles and Diana will have a long wait before they ascend the throne. With so many monarchies abolished the question could be raised, "Will they ever be crowned?"

Time Magazine reports that it took "upwards of $46 million to keep the royal operation afloat, and even in a time of serious unemployment there are surprisingly few complaints that the country is not getting its money's worth. Almost 90% of poled Britons want to retain the monarchy."

Diana, at eleven, cuddles a favorite pet

Diana, as the accompanying chart notes, is the daughter of Frances Ruth Burke-Roche by her first marriage (to Edward John Spencer.) She was born at Park (sic) House, part of the 20,000-acre royal estate at Sandringham, in Norfolk, which the Spencer family rented from the Crown. The plush setting for her early childhood was no assurance of a happy home. After her parents' messy divorce when she was 8 (her mother ran off with Peter Shand-Kidd), Diana her brother and two sisters shuttled back and forth between separate households.

In 1642 he removed to Rehoboth, and was admitted a freeman of Plymouth Colony, Oct. 1645. He served Rehoboth as Committee [Deputy] in the Plymouth General Court, Oct. 1645 and June 1647. He was Surveyor for the Highways at Rehoboth, 1650, and on the Grand Jury, Oct. 1651. [Shurtleff: Plymouth Colony Records, 2-89, 94, 117, 155, 172.] Qualifying ancestor, Society of Colonial Wars.

In 1652 he joined his son-in-law, Thomas Minor, with others, in the settlement at Wequentenock, Conn., which became Stonington. His will, dated 19 May 1658, mentioned his wife, son John, daughter Grace (who received twenty shillings), sons Jonas and William, and children, Elihu, Nehemiah, Moses, Benjamin, Gershom, Hannah, and Rebecca; and gave twenty shillings apiece to all his grandchildren.

According to the "Topographical Dictionary" of Col. Charles E. Banks, Walter Palmer was from Yetminster, co. Dorset, while Abraham Palmer was from Canterbury, co. Kent.

ROBERT PARKE

New London, Conn.

ROBERT[1] PARKE, born in England,* about 1580, died at Mystic [Stonington], Conn., 4 Feb. 1664/5, aged 84; married first, at Semer, co. Suffolk, England, 9 Feb. 1601/2, MARTHA CHAPLIN, baptized at Semer, 4 Feb. 1583/4, died probably by 1643, daughter of William Chaplin; married second, (after 30 May) 1644, Alice (Freeman), widow of John Tompson.

He came with the Winthrop Fleet, sailing 29 Mar. 1630, and settled in Roxbury, Mass.

In 1639 he removed to Wethersfield, Conn. He was Deputy for Wethersfield to the Conn. General Court, Aug. 1642 [Conn. Col. Rec., 1-73.] He removed to New London, Conn., where he was Selectman in 1651. He was Deputy for New London, May 1652 [Conn. Col. Rec., 1-231.] Qualifying ancestor, Society of Colonial Wars.

* Said to have been from Preston, Lancashire, but no evidence has been seen, and the statement may originally have been based on the place of origin of his second wife.

He settled in Stonington in 1658. In 1660 he conveyed to his son Thomas, both being called of "Southerton." He was of New London in 1662. On 14 Mar. 1664/5, William Parke, as eldest son and executor of the will of Robert Parke late of New London, deceased, conveyed for love to his brother Thomas and Dorothie his wife. [Land Rec. New London, 3-78, 98, 113, 139, 223.]

His will, dated 14 May 1660, proved 14 Mar. 1664/5, calls him of Mistick "neere New London," and makes his eldest son William executor and his chief heir; to son Samuel, £50, if he shall come and demand it at Roxbury, Mass.; and one-third of estate to son Thomas or any of his children at the choice of the executor. [Probate Rec. New London, File 3963.]

Descents are traced through his sons William and Thomas.

First Line

(Deacon) William[2] Parke, baptized at Semer, co. Suffolk, England, 21 Apr. 1607, died at Roxbury, Mass., 11 May 1685, aged 79 (gravestone); married Martha[2] Holgrave, born in England, about 1615, died at Roxbury, Mass., 25 Aug. 1708, in 94th year, daughter of John[1] and ——— (———) Holgrave.

He followed his father's family to New England, coming on the Lyon, which sailed from Bristol 1 Dec. 1630 and arrived 5 Feb. 1630/1. He settled in Roxbury, Mass., where he remained. Rev. John Eliot says of him in his church records: "William Parke. he came to N. E. in the 12th month, 1630. a single man, & was one of the first in the church at Rocksbrough: he afterwards married Martha Holgrave, the daughter of [blank] Holgrave of Salē. he married the month"

He was made a freeman, 18 May 1631. He is said to have had the longest service in the Massachusetts General Court of any under the old Charter. He was Deputy for Roxbury at the sessions of Sept. 1635, May 1636, Nov. 1637, Mar., May and Sept. 1638, May and Oct. 1640, May 1644, May, Aug. and Oct. 1645, May 1646, May 1647, May 1648, May 1649, May 1650, May 1651, May 1653, May 1654, May 1659, May and Dec. 1660, May and Aug. 1661, May 1662, May 1663, May and Aug. 1664, May 1665, May and Sept. 1666, May 1667, Apr. 1668, May 1669, May 1670, May 1672, May and Sept. 1673, May and Oct. 1674, May and Aug. 1676, May 1677, and Feb. 1679/80. Qualifying ancestor, Society of Colonial Dames of America, and Society of Colonial Wars.

He was one of three commissioners appointed, May 1660, to discharge the vacant office of Surveyor General. [ib., 4-1-422.]

He was a member of the Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company of Boston, 1638.

His will was dated 20 July 1684. He left no surviving male issue, and his property went to his daughters and their heirs.

(DEACON) THOMAS[2] PARKE, born in England, , died at Preston, Conn., 30 July 1709; married DOROTHY[2] TOMPSON, baptized at Preston Capes, co. Northants, England, 5 July 1624, died , daughter of John and Alice[1] (Freeman) Tompson.

He was with his father at Wethersfield, New London and Stonington, Conn., and is said to have been one of Wethersfield's quota in the Pequot War.* Thomas "of Misticke neere Pequot" sold, 9 Oct. 1656, to his father, Robert Parke, Gentleman. He bought a farm at "Southerton near Mistick River," 8 Feb. 1657/8. On 14 Mar. 1664/5, he and his wife Dorothie received a deed from his brother William Parke, as executor of his father's will, and on 23 Mar. 1664/5, Thomas Parke of "Mistick" [Stonington] bought from his brother William. [Land Rec. New London, 3-41, 183, 223, 224.]

He later settled in the northern part of New London, and was of that town when he sold land in 1671 which he had bought of his father, Mr. Robert Parke, and of his brother, William Parke of Roxbury [ib., 5-16].

In 1686 he was one of the incorporators of the new town of Preston, Conn., and was first deacon of Mr. Treat's church there. In 1687, Thomas Parke, Sr., of Preston, conveyed to his son-in-law, Joseph Morgan, mention-

WILLIAM PARKER

Saybrook, Conn.

WILLIAM[1] PARKER, born in England, , died at Saybrook, Conn., 21 Dec. 1686; married MARGERY ———, born in England, , died at Saybrook, Conn., 6 Dec. 1680.

He was an original proprietor of Hartford, Conn., in 1636. The original book of land distributions, under date of "Febr: Anno: Dom: 1639," lists "Severall parcells of land in hertford vpon the river of Cannecticott belonginge to William Parker & to his heires forever:" The first was two acres with a dwelling house, and ten other parcels were listed. The homelot was sold to Michael Spencer, and other pieces were disposed of to Daniel Pratt, Joseph Collier, Mr. Pitkin, and others.

He served in the Pequot War, 1637, and for this service received a colonial grant of 100 acres in May 1673. He soon removed to Saybrook, Conn., and served that town as Deputy to the Conn. General Court, Sept. 1652, May 1672, May and Oct. 1673, Oct. 1674, May 1676, Oct. 1678, May and Oct. 1679, Oct. 1680, May and Oct. 1681, May and Oct. 1682, and May 1683. In several of these records he was called Sergeant, doubtless because he held that office in the Saybrook Train Band. [Conn. Colonial Rec., 1-235; 2-169, 192, 196, 209, 236, 274; 3-17, 26, 36, 66, 75, 86, 97, 106, 115.] Qualifying ancestor, Society of Colonial Dames and Society of Colonial Wars.

Mr. William Whiting of Hartford, in a codicil to his will bearing date 2 Apr. 1646, immediately after a gift of £5 to a sister and of £3 apiece to his sister's children, wrote "I giue vnto margery parker," £10. This was a good-sized legacy to receive from a man, even though wealthy, who had a wife and children; and though no relationship is mentioned, it is likely that Margery was connected in some way with the Whitings or that they brought 108. William Gager, b. Suffolk, England, d. Charlestown 20 Sept. 1630, immigrant in the Winthrop Fleet. His wife, #109, is unknown.

110. Samuel Gore of London, England, probably the Samuel Goare who married Elizabeth Hill of Rotherhithe, a district of London, 18 Jan. 1625/6, as found in Boyd's Marriage Index at the Society of Genealogists in London. A grocer, Gore was probably also the "Samuel Goore" who "became free of the Grocer's Co. London 16 May 1622. Late apprentice to Henry Dodd." See the Register, 115 (1961): 252, 253, 256.

114. John Luff, d. Salem ca. 1667/8, immigrant on the Mary and John to Boston, 1633, in Salem 1636, m.

115. Bridget ——— living 1671, aged 84.

124. Robert Parke, bapt. Postingford, Suffolk, England 3 June 1580, d. Mystic (Stonington) Conn. 14 Mar. 1664/5, immigrant in the Winthrop Fleet, soon thereafter in Roxbury, in Wethersfield, Conn. 1639, in New London 1649, in Stonington 1658. He was a son of Robert Parke of Gestingthorpe (will dated 12 Feb. 1592/3, proved 3 Apr. 1593) and Alice Chaplin (married Sudbury, Suffolk 1579), grandson of William Parke of Gestingthorpe (will dated 25 Mar. 1551, proved 13 May 1551), and great-grandson of another William Parke of Gestingthorpe, d. 1531. This last was likely a son of a third William Parke of Gestingthorpe, living 1484, probable son of John Parke of that place, heir of his father in 1455, son of another John Parke of Gestingthorpe, heir of his father in 1414, son of Robert Parke of Gestingthorpe, d. 1400, and Margaret ———, d. 22 Aug. 1408. The immigrant m. 1) Semer, Suffolk 9 Feb. 1601/2

125. Martha Chaplin, bapt. Semer, Suffolk, England 4 Feb. 1583/4, d. probably by 1643 (whether she came to New England is unknown), her husband's first cousin and a daughter of William Chaplin of Semer, Suffolk, who was buried there 15 Oct. 1629, and Agnes ———, his first wife, buried at Semer 26 Sept. 1602. William Chaplin and his sister Alice Chaplin, wife of Robert Parke of Gestingthorpe, above, were children of another William Chaplin, of Tarnes Farm, Long Melford, whose will was dated 15 Nov. 1575 and proved 25 Jan. 1577/8, and an unknown first wife. Robert Chaplin (1602-1643/4) of Bury St. Edmunds, Suffolk, a brother of Mrs. Martha Chaplin Parke, was the father of a lord mayor of London, the grandfather of a baronet, and an ancestor of all viscounts Chaplin and Canterbury, all barons Manners, and various other British peers. 126. JOHN THOMPSON, gent., of Little Preston, Northamptonshire, England, d. London 6 Nov. 1626 m. 2) before 1 May 1616, as her first husband

127. ALICE FREEMAN, birth and death dates unknown, immigrant, m. 2) shortly after 30 May 1644 Robert Parke, #124 above. Alice was a daughter of Henry Freeman of Cranford, Northamptonshire, b. 1560, and Margaret Edwards (m. by 25 Dec. 1591), granddaughter of Thomas Freeman of Irchester, Northamptonshire (will dated 24 Mar. 1585, proved 11 May 1586) and of Edward Edwards of Alwalton, Huntingtonshire (will dated 25 Dec. 1591, proved 16 Sept. 1592) and Ursula Coles (bur. Alwalton 2 Feb. 1606), and great-granddaughter of Henry Freeman of Irchester (will dated 6 Aug. 1580, proved 29 Apr. 1585) and Joan Rudd, of Peter Edwards of Peterborough, Northamptonshire, and Alwalton (b. ca. 1490, d. ca. 1552) and his second wife, Susanna Samwell (m. ca. 1535), and of Richard Coles of Preston Capes (d. 11 Sept. 1575) and Jane Bond (m. 1527, living 1576). An ancestor table of Alice Freeman for 32 generations is outlined in Henry James Young, The Blackmans of Knight's Creek: Ancestors and Descendants of George and Maria (Smith) Blackman, rev. ed., (Carlisle, Pa., 1980), 55-134. Through Susanna Samwell, Alice Freeman and Dr. Joseph Strong have two royal descents, both c ıtlined in an appendix at the end of this work. The first, carefully developed by Clarence Almon Torrey and George Andrews Moriarty, Jr., is from Ethelred II, King of England, d. 1016, and Malcolm II, King of Scots, d. 1034, via earls of Northumberland and Dunbar and the Merlay, Gobion, Morteyn, and Giffard families. See The American Genealogist, 13 (1936-1937): 1-8; 14 (1937-1938): 145, 146; and 29 (1953): 215-218, and the Register, 75 (1921): 131-136 and 79 (1925): 358-378, and the 19-volume manuscript collection of G.A. Moriarty at NEHGS. The second royal descent, compiled by H. J. Young from F. N. MacNamara, Memorials of the Danvers Family (of Dauntsey & Culworth) (London, 1895), William F. Carter, The Quatremains of Oxfordshire (Oxford, 1936), volume 8 of the Moriarty manuscript collection, and a few other sources, is from Hugh Capet, King of France, d. 996, through counts of Hainault, Roucy, Montdidier, and Clermont, and the Clare, Wake, Duston, Grey of Rotherfield, Breton, Quatremain, Bruley, Danvers, Langston, and Giffard families. The former of these royal descents is outlined in F. L. Weis and W.L. Sheppard, Jr., Ancestral Roots of 60 Colonists Who Came to New England Between 1623 and 1650, 5th ed. (Baltimore, 1976), lines 34, 41-43, and 29A. The additional royal descent outlined in 29A, however, through the Corbet, Harley, and Besford families, has been disproved; see The Genealogist (New York), 1 (1980): 27-39. The second, Capetian royal descent of Alice Freeman is charted in Henry James Young, The Carolingian Ancestry of Edmond Hawes, Alice Freeman, and Thomas James (Carlisle, Pa., 1983), 7-8. Sir John Throckmorton (d. 1445) of Coughton, Warwickshire, and John Danvers (d. ca. 1448) of Colthorp, Oxfordshire, great-great-great and great-great-grandfathers respectively of Susanna Samwell, were each ancestors of several dozen immigrants to the American colonies. These kinships are explored in "The Mowbray Connection," 7: 162-166, 174, 175. Among other New England colonists Alice Freeman's nearest kinsman was Rev. William Sargent (1602-1682) of Malden, Mass.; see Weis and Sheppard, Ancestral Roots, line 43.

PARKE AND CHAPLIN

Based on data contributed by Harwood E. Park, Esq., of Los Angeles, Cal., arranged with additions by the Editor

The late Henry F. Waters was an honest and extremely competent genealogist, specializing in the Anglo-American field. But the best of genealogists make occasional mistakes, and Mr. Waters made one in reading the will of Clement Chaplin.

Clement Chaplin, aged 48, came to New England in the Elizabeth & Ann in 1635 [John Camden Hotten, The Original Lists, 69]. According to the Candler MS [No. 6071 of Harleian Collection, British Museum], he was a chandler of Bury, co Suffolk, went to New England and was an elder in Mr. Hooker's congregation [Hartford, Conn.] and his wife was Sarah Hinds, daughter of a goldsmith in Bury. Considerable information is there given about the brothers and sisters of Clement Chaplin, one of whom, Martha, is said to have been married to Robert Parker of Wollpit, who went into New England. The present Keeper of Documents at the British Museum still reads this name as Parker, as given by Waters [Genealogical Gleanings in England (1901), 1:32]. This indicates that the name Parke was either miswritten Parker or so written that it can only be read as Parker. For the person intended is Robert Parke.

Made or sold candles

Clement Chaplin was at Cambridge, came to Hartford with Hooker, and settled in Wethersfield. He served as Deputy for the last town at the Connecticut General Court, May 1637, and March, April and Sept. 1643; and was Treasurer of the Colony in 1638 [Colonial Records of Conn., 1:9, 12, 82, 84, 93]. He shortly returned to England and died at Thetford, co. Norfolk, in 1656. Waters found his will and published an abstract of it, but made one bad error. He read it that Chaplin named his kinsman, Mr. William Clarke, of Roxbury in New England. This was actually William Parke, his nephew, son of the sister Martha. A verbatim copy of the will, taken from a photostatic copy, is given herewith. Just in front of the name Parke, and covering the lower part of the 'P,' is an ink blot, but the name is quite clear. However, it is possible to read the initial letter as an 'l'; Mr. Waters evidently so read it and imagined a 'C' under the ink blot, thus converting Parke into Clarke.

Walter K. Watkins in 1902, in a note in the New England Hist. and Gen. Register [56:183-4], refers to the Chaplin wills published by Waters, and states that Rev. Clement Chaplin's sister Martha married Robert Parker of Woolpit and suggests that he was the Robert Parker of Wethersfield, Conn. This would be correct if for Parker we read Parke. He follows Waters in the error of William "Clark" instead of Parke of Roxbury.

Henry R. Stiles in The History of Ancient Wethersfield (1904), 2:526, states that Robert Parke was born at Preston, near Liverpool, England, but actually he was from Woolpit, co. Suffolk; also, that he married Martha daughter of Capt. Robert "Chapin or Chaplin of Bury St. Edmonds," but actually she was his sister. Alfred L. Holman in Blackman and Allied Families (1928) p. 144, states that Robert Parke married Martha daughter of Capt. Robert and Elizabeth (Ansty) Chaplin of Bury, England, and gives as his source, F. S. Parks, Parke Families of Connecticut (1906), pp. 25-28, where indeed some data of value are given, but they should be handled with care and revised in the light of subsequent discoveries. Donald L. Jacobus, Granberry and Allied Families (1945) identifies the wife of Robert Parke as Martha Chaplin, baptized at Semer, co. Suffolk, 4 Feb. 1583/4, married there 9 Feb. 1601/2, daughter of William Chaplin.

William Chaplin of Semer, co. Suffolk, had children, in addition to Martha (bapt. 1583/4) and Clement (b.ca. 1586-7): Thomas of Bury, m. Elizabeth Hinds, sister of Clement's wife; William of Blokeshall; Richard of Semer; Edmund of Semer; Capt. Robert of Bury; a daughter who m. Robert Smith of Semer; and a daughter who m. Robert Barret of Stratford. Capt. Robert Chaplin of Bury St. Edmunds was father of Sir Francis Chaplin, Knt., citizen and Lord Mayor of London, one of whose sons was created a Baronet in 1715.

Waters [op. cit., 2:1010] gives the will of William Chaplen of Long Melford, co. Suffolk, dated 15 Nov. 1575, proved 25 Jan. 1577, which named with others his brother Clement and Clement's eldest son William, then under 21. It seems quite possible that this William, perhaps not much under age in 1575, was William of Semer who had children born in the 1580's including Martha and Clement; but further research is indicated.

In addition to the sources cited above, Mr. Park calls attention to further sources on the Chaplin family; Visitation of Suffolk, 1664-8, D22, fo. 179b; Le Neves, Pedigrees of the Knights, vol. 8, p. 3; J. Burke, Extinct Baronetcies; Waters [supra], 1:32, 77; 2:1010-1012; Burke's Landed Gentry, 1875; Parish Register of Semer, co. Suffolk; Le Neve's Book of Suffolk, last pedigree; Le Neve's Book of London, fo. 210.

MARY PARK

Mary Park was born in La Rue county, Kentucky, in 1816. She was a daughter of James and Theodosia (Dodge) McDonald, and was married to Joseph L. Park, in 1835. He was born November 12, 1810, and died in 1852; and was a son of George and Elizabeth (Hahn) Park. George Park was born January 31, 1773, and was married to Elizabeth Hahn, April 26, 1795.

Mary Park came with her children to Greenbush, Warren county, Illinois, in the fall of 1856. Her son, William B., preceded her on horseback.

To Joseph L. and Mary Park were born the following-named children:

William B., born December 24, 1836; married Rebecca Morris. She was born December 14, 1833; and died June 28, 1893. He died in the army in 1862.

Columbus, born in 1837; married Sarah A. Standeford. She died in Arkansas, in 1895.

Josephine, born September 17, 1839; married John J. Butler, December 29, 1860. He died June 27, 1864, at the age of 28 years. Her second marriage was to J. Robert Lloyd, June 25, 1866. He died December 21, 1878, at the age of 46 years. Her third marriage was to J. E. Amos, March 30, 1882.

John A., born January 9, 1842; married Mary Eliza Park. She was born in Hardin county, Kentucky, and was a daughter of Culbertson and Julia A. (Walker) Park.

Wallace, born June 19, 1844; married Nancy Hains. He died from mineral poison while working in mines at Joplin, Missouri.

Marian, born September 17, 1849; married Chu Lieurance, in 1861. Her second marriage was to John Patton.

Sarah E., born May 8, 1852; married Michael Carroll. He died in the army. Her second marriage was to Daniel E. Gott, a native of Canada.

Mary Park, the subject of this sketch, was for several years a member of the Methodist church. During her last years she became a member of the Christian church, and died a member of that denomination, August 1, 1888.

tinued to clerk for him until the spring of 1865, when he had to give up the place on account of a long spell of sickness.

April 15, 1867, he was appointed clerk in the U. S. internal revenue service by Gen. L. F. Ross, collector of the ninth district, Illinois. From that date until July 1, 1886, he was continuously in government service as clerk and deputy-collector, at a salary from nine to eighteen hundred dollars, serving under five different collectors.

John M. Frampton moved to Pittsfield, Illinois, in July, 1892, where he now resides. To John M. Frampton and wife were born two sons: Mendal Garbatt, born November 21, 1874; married to Miss Marian D. Kirby, at Jacksonville, Ill., September 10, 1903; John Ross, born July 10, 1879. Mendal was graduated from Illinois College, Jacksonville, in 1898, with the degree of A. B.; and as post-graduate, in 1899, with the degree of A. M.; and as post-graduate at Harvard University, with the degree of A. M., in 1900. He is now a teacher of English in Pomona College, Claremont, California.

John Ross graduated at Oberlin, Ohio, in 1901, as A. B.; and graduated from Oberlin Conservatory of Music, in 1904. He is now a teacher in Iowa College Conservatory of Music, at Grinnell, Iowa.

Dear Vivian,
I just received your letter today, requesting references on Josephine Park's parents and grandparents. It's always exciting to me when I realize that the Ancestral File is being used! I know there are lots of mistakes in it, but it still puts us in touch with so many of our relatives that we otherwise might not ever know about! I would be glad to share with you what information I have, so that you might pass it on to your son-in-law.
First of all, I do not descend through Josephine, but through her brother, Columbus Craig. I have copies of the original marriage license and certificate for Joseph and Mary, as well as the marriage bond for George and Elizabeth (Betsy). When you go to the FHL in January, you should look up the following film:
pages 299-301
This is a deed, dated 18 May 1857 which lists the names of George's children. In those instances when his child has died, it lists the names of the deceased child's children. That's where we get lucky, because Joseph had already died by this time, so his children are all listed as well. Josephine was not married at this time, so she is listed simply as Josephine Park. I don't have time right now, but I will send you the film and book numbers of several other sources to verify this information.
I have not personally researched Joseph and Mary's family (Josephine's parents). The information I got was from relatives who had submitted information years ago, but I feel that it is fairly correct.
Since I made the submission to Ancestral File, I have been able to get George and Betsy's family back one more generation, to Geroge's parents, Arthur Park and Rebecca Culbertson. (In case you are LDS, I should let you know that these names have already been submitted for temple work.)
I live three hours away from the Family History Library, so I am not able to do much research for other people, but, as I stated earlier, I would be glad to share any information I have or might find on this line.
Say hello to your son-in-law (my cousin!) for me. I will keep in touch. I have six children and a busy husband, so I'm not always able to respond right away, but I will try! I can also give you names of other Park researchers on our line. That's all for now. Linda

JOSEPH TROXEL, an aged resident of the Phelps neighborhood, died March 27, 1911, at the home of his son, W. A. TROXEL. He had suffered from an attack of grippe early in the winter, and his age was such that he could not recover. He was born at Gettysburg, Pa., in 1828, and followed the trade of a tailor for a number of years. He was married twice, both of his wives having preceded him in death. After the death of his second wife he made his home for some time with his son at Phelps. His funeral was held at his son's home and the remains were taken to Grand Ridge near Ottawa for burial.

HAYNES MC LANE

HAYNES MC LAYNE, one of the oldest and best known residents of Henderson county, died March 27, 1911, at his home four miles northwest of Kirkwood, where he had lived for fifty years on the same farm. He was born in Tennessee in 1828, and early in life came to Henderson county to make his home. He married MISS LYDIA CURRY, who died in March of 1909. He was survived by GEORGE MC LANE on the home place, MRS. ALBERT BROUSE near Kirkwood. MRS. JOHN SHOOK OF Red Oak, Iowa, and MRS. FLETCHER MARSTON of Dexter, Iowa. Twenty-three grandchildren were living, one of them being MRS. JOHN MC NAMARA of Monmouth. The funeral was conducted by REV. W. H. CRAINE of the Kirkwood Methodist church, with burial at Biggsville.

MRS. MARGARET MORNINGSTAR

The Roseville correspondent on March 29, 1911, said: "MRS. MARGARET MORNINGSTAR died at her home after midnight Sunday night. She has been very poorly about ten days and has not been well for over a year. Her illness was caused by a bowel trouble. MARGARET DILLEY was born in Mercer county, Pa., on May 7, 1841. In 1860 she married JOSIAH EVERETT and to this union were born six children, two of whom survive, WILLIAM S. EVERETT of Kansas City and MRS. VERA ROBERTS, wife of JACOB ROBERTS, living north of here. She was married to WILLIAM MORNINGSTAR in 1896. He died five years ago. MRS. MORNINGSTAR was a member of the Congregational church here. She was ever a consistent member and had a host of friends here. The funeral will be held at the Congregational chruch at 2:30 today."

JOHN A. PARKS

JOHN A. PARKS, a WELL KNOWN RESIDENT OF THE Greenbush neighborhood, died at his home a mile south of that village March 29, 1911, following an illness that extended over a year. He was born in Hardin county, Kentucky, in 1843, and came to Illinois with his parents when he was but twelve years old. All the remainder of his life, was spent in the vicinity of Greenbush. He left his wife, one sister, a brother and a niece. His funeral was held at the Greenbush Methodist church.

Thompson Parke Vol. 29 TAG Edwards

ALICE (FREEMAN) (TOMPSON) PARKE

By Robert L. Steenrod, Chicago, Illinois

An article under the same title as the above, by Mr. Clarence Almon Torrey, appeared in The American Genealogist, vol. 13, pp. 1-8. That article dealt with the English ancestry of Alice Freeman, wife first of John Tompson, gentleman, of Preston Capes, Northamptonshire, England, and second of Mr. Robert Parke of Roxbury, Mass. Mrs. Alice Tompson left descendants in this country at least through her daughters Bridget Tompson wife of Capt. George Denison and Dorothy Tompson wife of Thomas Parke.

Mr. Torrey's article proves that Alice Freeman was daughter of Henry Freeman of Cranford, Northamptonshire by his wife Margaret Edwards, daughter of Edward Edwards of Allerton [Alwalton], Huntingdonshire, who was son of Peter Edwards of Peterborough, Northamptonshire. He did not pursue this Edwards line further. It is the purpose of the present writer to develop this line somewhat, and to show that it connects with a royal line of sorts.

The following are the chief sources used; they are numbered, and in subsequent paragraphs the numbers in square brackets will refer back to these sources:

1. The American Genealogist, vol. 13, pp.1-8; vol. 14, p.145.
2. Victoria History of the County of Huntingdon, vol. 3, pp. 133-4.
3. Visitations of Northamptonshire (1564 and 1618-9) by William Harvey, edited by Walter C. Metcalfe (London, 1887), pp. 93-4, 194-5.
4. History of Northamptonshire, George Baker, vol. 1, pp. 224, 433.
5. New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. 74, pp. 231-7, 267-83; vol. 75, pp. 57-63, 129-142 (articles on the Giffards of Twyford, with the Sargent connection, by G. Andrews Moriarty).
6. A History of the Chief English Families Bearing the Name of Knapp, by Oswald Greenwaye Knapp (London, 1911), p. 183.
7. Peterborough Local Administration (in the Publications of the Northampton Record Society, vol. 9); also vol. 12, titled Tudor Documents, the last days of Peterborough Monastery.

The Edwards family seems to have been originally Edward and that form was usual in the earlier generations. A Lawrence Edward was living at Peterborough, co. Northampton, in 1479. [7] We start our pedigree definitely with Peter Edward, a mercer, of Peterborough (born say 1465, died about 1525), probably the churchwarden of 1516-21, whose wife may have been Elizabeth. He was father of a second Peter Edward(s), of Peterborough, co. Northampton, and of Alwalton Manor in the parish of Alwalton, co. Huntingdon. Alwalton lies to the south of Peterborough and is just across the Nen River from it. This second Peter appears to have been twice married. We quote from the account of the Manor of Alwalton in the Victoria History of Huntingdon [2]:

"It had probably not been the custom to grant leases of the manor till shortly before the dissolution of Peterborough Abbey, since the bailiff of Fletton received 16s. 8d. a year from the abbey. In 1535, however, a lease for 30 years was granted to Peter Edward, William Barrett and his wife Joan, daughter of Peter Edward, and their son Richard Barrett. Later the name of Edward's wife Susan was inserted in the lease with the consent of the abbot. The Dean and Chapter granted the reversion to Richard White, a prebendary of Peterborough, from whom it was acquired by John Mountsteven. After the death of Peter Edward, the leases were bought in reversion by his widow Susan, who married John Arundell. She and her husband also obtained a new lease from the Dean and Chapter, in which no former leases were recited. Richard Barrett tried to recover his interest in the manor in 1561, but it seems clear that Susan, who after the death of Arundell married a third time, remained in possession of the manor and that the reversion passed to her son Edward Edward. The latter died before 1597, when his son Peter was involved in a lawsuit about the lease."

If we assume that Peter Edward(s) was born about 1490, he would have been about 45 in 1535, old enough to have one married daughter, Joan, wife of William Barrett, and the one grandchild, Richard Barrett. It looks as if he may have acquired a second wife Susan(na) shortly thereafter and, since he was having male issue by her, had her added to the lease. She was Susanna Samwell, daughter of Richard and Amy (Gifford) Samwell of Edgecote, co. Northampton. Three children of this marriage are known: (1) Edward, (2) Nicholas, (3) Amy, who married Thomas Ludlowe. It is to be noted that Edward Edwards died in 1592 and then mentioned in his will this brother and sister, but did not mention a sister Joan or Barrett relatives. This would accord with the conclusion that Joan was a much older half-sister of Edward, and that relations with the Barretts were strained because of Edward's success in gaining the reversion of the lease. [1, 2, 3, 4, 7]

Checking the chronology, we are supposing that Peter Edward(s) married Susanna Samwell shortly after the lease of 1535, and that their eldest son Edward was born about 1537. That would make Edward close to 55 when he died in 1592. His will, dated 25 Dec. 1591, named sons Peter, Francis, Richard, Robert, and Nicholas, of whom clearly only Peter was of age, since Francis, called the second son, was stated to be under 22. His will named his eldest daughter Margaret Freeman [she became the mother of Alice (Freeman) Tompson] and an unmarried daughter Elizabeth. It is to be inferred that only two of the seven surviving children were of age, and most certainly a man of 55 could have had two children over 21. It is therefore entirely possible to place the birth of Edward Edwards as no earlier than 1537 or even as late as 1540. [1]

Edward Edwards married Ursula Coles, who was buried at Alwalton 2 Feb. 1606, daughter of Richard Coles, Esq. (son of Peter Coles), of Preston Capes, co. Northampton (died 11 Sept. 1575), by his wife Jane Bond of Northampton (married 1527, living 1576). [1, 4]

Edward's will also mentioned his cousin, Thomas Knapp, of whom more later.

Richard Samwell of Edgecote, co. Northampton, formerly of Cotesford, co. Oxford, is described as son of John Samwell and grandson of James Samwell, both of co. Cornwall. Richard died 3 May 1519, having married Amy Gifford, daughter of Thomas Gifford of Twyford, co. Buckingham (died 10 Oct. 1511), by his wife, Joan Langston (who survived him), daughter and heiress of John and Amice (Danvers) Langston of Caversfield, co. Buckingham. [3, 4, 5] The only brother of Amy Gifford was born about 1481 by a statement of his age in 1511, and Amy herself was married before 1511. We may not go far astray if we guess Amy's date of birth to fall around 1485-1490. This is of importance, because we have set down the reasons for concluding that Amy (Gifford) Samwell's daughter Susanna may not have married Peter Edwards, as his second wife, until after 1535. If that is so, Susanna may not have been born until 1510-1515.

That suggested date of birth for Susanna (Samwell) Edwards accords well with the birth about 1525 of her brother Francis Samwell (bur. at Northampton 24 Dec. 1585), who married Mary Bill (buried at Northampton 25 July 1589). One of their children was Sir William Samwell, Knight (bur. at Upton, co. Northampton, 25 Jan. 1627/8 aged 67, hence born about 1560); and an older child was Amy Samwell (named for her grandmother Amy Gifford) who married 7 July 1566 Roger Gifford, Gent. [brother of Margaret Gifford wife of Hugh Sargent and grandmother of William Sargent of Malden and Barnstable, Mass.], and had a son, Rev. Thomas Gifford, of Ashley, co. Northampton. [3, 4, 5]

Now the will of Thomas Knapp of Kingsthorpe, co. Northampton, dated 12 Apr., proved 26 May 1613, named his cousin Thomas Gifford of Ashley; and made Sir William Samwell of Upton overseer of his estate. It must be remembered that Edward Edwards in his will in 1591 called Thomas Knapp his cousin. This may be considered a confirmation of the Visitation pedigree which gives Susanna Samwell as wife of Peter Edwards of Wellingborough [the place is in error and Baker's History correctly makes it read Peterborough]. For if the mother of Edward Edwards was Susanna Samwell, then Edward was a first cousin of Sir William Samwell, while Rev. Thomas Gifford was Edward's first cousin once removed. Hence, when Thomas Knapp figures as a cousin of these people, the relationship seems certainly to be through the Samwell family, even though the precise connection of Thomas Knapp or of Knapp's wife Jane has not been worked out. [1, 6] The repetition of the names Richard, Francis and Amy (Gifford) Samwell in Richard, Francis and Amy Edwards is also significant. A table will better show some of the relationships described:

Richard Samwell = Amy Gifford
Susanna Samwell = Peter Edwards
Francis Samwell = Mary Bill
Edward Edwards = Ursula Coles
Sir William Samwell
Amy Samwell = Roger Gifford
Margaret Gifford md. Hugh Sargent
Margaret Edwards = Henry Freeman
Rev. Thomas Gifford
Roger Sargent
Alice Freeman 1 = John Tompson
William Sargent

Note: Thomas Knapp was "cousin" of Edward Edwards and Rev. Thomas Gifford and made Sir William Samwell his overseer.

The Gifford ancestry will be found for many generations back of Amy (Gifford) Samwell in the article by Mr. G. Andrews Moriarty already cited [5]. A royal descent to the early kings of Scotland and England, running through the Gifford and de Morteyn and de Merlay families, set up by the same writer with full references to documentary sources, was published in The New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. 79, pp. 358-378.

ALICE (FREEMAN) (TOMPSON) PARKE

By Clarence Almon Torrey, Ph.B., of Dorchester, Mass.

In 1644, the widow Alice Tompson of Roxbury, Mass., married second, as his second wife, Robert Parke. The exact date is unknown, but it was shortly after May 30, 1644, when the clerk of the House of Deputies of the Massachusetts Bay Colony entered the following act [Records of the Governor and Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England, vol. 3, p. 3]:

> The peticõn of Robert Parke is graunted by ye whole Courte, and hath libtye to pceed in marriage wth Alice Tompson wthout furthr publishẽ.

It has long been known that Alice was the widow of John Tompson, gentleman, who died in Little Preston, a hamlet in the parish of Preston Capes, Northamptonshire, England, between Nov. 6, 1626, when his will was made, and April 11, 1627, when it was proved. The following abstract of his will was printed in the Boston Evening Transcript, July 25, 1917.

He mentions "my wife Alice Tompson" and "my son Thomas Tompson," not then of full age of twenty-one years. He again speaks of "all my children," but does not give their names. To his brothers-in-law William Spencer, a minister, and Henry Freeman, gentleman, he gives all his "messauges, closes, lands, tenements and hereditaments whatsoever in the town, parish and fields of Woodford-by-Hynton," in Northamptonshire, to be sold, "the money thereof made to be distributed equally amongst all my children except my son Thomas Tompson, and to be paid unto them at their several ages of twenty-one years, or days of marriage." He also mentions his interest in a moiety of the manor of Saxby, and in "other lands, tenements, closes and hereditaments in Saxby in the County of Leicester." His wife, Alice, and brother-in-law, Thomas Freeman, were made executors.

The parish register of Preston Capes mentions the baptisms of six children, as follows:

November 14, 1619.	Mary Thompson, daughter of John and Alice.
July 2, 1621.	Dority Thompson, daughter of John and Alice.
September 11, 1622.	Bridgett Thompson, daughter of John and Alice.
July 5, 1624.	Dority Thompson, daughter of John and Alice.
October 16, 1625	Nathaniel Thompson, son of John and Alice.
December 17, 1626.	Martha Tompson, daughter of John and Alice.

Dority Thompson, baptized July 2, 1621, was buried October 19, 1621. The parish records do not mention the burial of John, the father. He may have been buried elsewhere.

One of the daughters who accompanied her mother to New England was Bridget, who married, as his first wife, Capt. George Denison, in March, 1640 [1640/1]. She was, therefore, entitled to her share of her father's estate in England, in accordance with his will. In order to secure her legacy, Capt. Denison and his wife consulted Thomas Lechford, a Boston lawyer. Through him they gave a power of attorney to Thomas Worlidge and Mr. Viner of London to receive her share of her father's estate, as appears in Lechford's Manuscript Note-Book [page 381 in the printed copy].

[211] George Denison of Rocksbury in New England gent and Bridget Denison his wife daughter of John Thompson late of Preston in the County of Northton gent deceased and of Mris. Alice Thompson now dwelling at Rocksbury aforesaid make a letter of Attorney to Thomas Worlidge Citizen & silk dyer of London and Mr. Viner citizen & silk dyer of London to demand receive & recover of Mr. Spencer Clarke parson of the parish Church of Scaldwell in the County of Northampton or any other lyable thereunto the portion of the said Bridget given her by her said fathers last will & testament 1.22.1640.

Although Lechford's date is 1.22.1640 [March 22, 1640], it is evident from subsequent entries that the record was made in March, 1640/1, soon after the marriage of Capt. George Denison to Bridget Tompson.

John Tompson of Preston Capes, Northamptonshire, England, mentioned three brothers-in-law in his will,—William Spencer, Henry Freeman, and Thomas Freeman. These persons are all mentioned, also, in the following pedigree which appears on page 91 of The Visitations of Northamptonshire made in 1564 and 1618-19, with Northamptonshire Pedigrees from various Harleian Mss. edited by Walter C. Metcalfe:

Thomas Freeman of Cranford, 1618	2. Henry Freeman of Wellingborough, co. Northampton, 1618. =	Elinor da. of Robert Mulshoe of Thingdon.	Alice, ux. John Tomson of Preston Capes, co. North'ton.	Jane, ux. William Spencer of Scaldwell, co. Northampton.

This pedigree makes clear the references by John Tompson to his brothers-in-law.

Rev. William Spencer, or Spenser, who married Jane Freeman, sister of Alice, was a graduate of the University of Cambridge, England. Information concerning him is given in Alumni Cantabrigienses, Part 1, vol. 4, p. 134. According to this authority, he married Jane Freeman, daughter of Henry, by Peterborough Licence, Jan. 13, 1617-18. He was buried at Scaldwell, Jan. 28, 1674-5.

From the Freeman pedigree it appears that Alice's mother was Margaret Edwards, daughter of Edward Edwards of Allerton, co. Huntingdon. The Edwards pedigree is found in The Visitation of Huntingdon, A.D. MDCXIII, edited by Sir Henry Ellis, and published by the Camden Society (see page 113).

* The Arms of Edwards are annexed in MS. Coll. Arm.—Ed.

It will be noticed that the Edwards pedigree mentions five sons of Edward, but no daughters. English Visitation pedigrees do not always mention daughters, perhaps from lack of space, from lack of information, or because it was not considered important to enter them. However, the will of Edward Edwards mentions his daughter Margaret, confirming her identity as set forth in the Freeman pedigree.

A more serious omission is that of a generation in the Freeman pedigree. The Henry Freeman with whom the pedigree begins was great-grandfather, not grandfather, of Alice. He was undoubtedly of yeoman stock. The family appears to have improved in wealth and social standing by native ability and advantageous marriages. Extracts from English wills and other records, cited below, will prove that the following is the correct line of descent:

Henry Freeman = Joan Rudd

Thomas Freeman = ——— ———

Henry Freeman = Margaret Edwards

John Tomson = Alice Freeman

The Rudd line is given on page 192 of "The Visitations of Northamptonshire made in 1564 and 1618-19, with Northamptonshire Pedigrees from various Harleian Mss.," edited by Walter C. Metcalfe, London, 1887. Joan, daughter of Thomas and Alice (Pemberton) Rudd, is mentioned as wife of Henry Freeman of Irchester.

The following records pertain, for the most part, to sons of the first known Henry Freeman:

The above records of the Skinners' Company, London, enable us to fix, approximately, the birth years of four sons of Henry Freeman of Irchester:

Blase, born 1536.
John, born 1541.
Oswald, born 1544.
Edward, born 1551.

Blase Freeman, evidently one of the older sons of Henry, but perhaps younger than Thomas, resided in London a number of years after serving his apprenticeship. This statement is based on the fact that his younger brothers served part or all of their apprenticeships under him. He returned to Wellingborough, Northamptonshire, and died there in 1590, as appears from the probate of his will.

From these and other records, it is thought that Henry Freeman was born about 1505-8 and married about 1530-33. One of his older sons was named Thomas. Perhaps Henry was a near relative of Thomas Freeman, son of John of Kettering, mentioned as an apprentice, 1505-1514. Henry died apparently early in 1585, and an abstract of his will follows.

The rest of all my goods to Dorothea ffreman my wellbeloved wyffe whom I putt in trust and make my full Executrix doubting not but yt she will have regard to my sonne and to my two daughters Elizabeth and Alice. In witness this my last will the eight Daie of Maye in Anno 1590 By me Blaze ffreman. Probate Second July 1590 to the Executrix named in testament.

Abstracts have been obtained of the wills of other Freemans of this region, namely: Henry of All Saints Parish, Northampton, 1539-40; John of Wendlingburgh [Wellingborough], 1558; Richard of Irchester, 1565; Joan of Irchester, 1572; and Thomas of Irchester, 1573. These abstracts are not included here, because the exact connection of these testators with the Henry Freeman family is not clearly established.

However, the will of Richard "Freyman" of Irchester, proved 4 May 1565, named his wife Joan as executrix, and appointed "Henrye Freyman gent" a supervisor. He may therefore have been a near relative. This Richard Freeman owned lands in Nether Deane, co. Bedford, and in Keyston, co. Huntingdon.

We have presented the evidence for the Freeman line down to Henry, the father of Alice. His wife was Margaret, daughter of Edward Edwards of Allerton, co. Hunts., according to the Freeman pedigree; and although she is omitted in the Edwards pedigree, that statement is borne out by her father's will [Arch. Hunts, Peterborough, XV. 219], of which the following is a brief abstract:

The will of Edward Edwards, of Allwalton als Alarton in the Countie of Hunts gent., dated 25 Dec. 1591, proved 16 Sept. 1592. To eldest son, Peter Edwards, freehold lands in the Borough of St. Peter als Peterborough, also two tenements in Wotton, co. Northampton, Peter to pay to his brother Francis ("my second son"), a hundred marks at the age of twenty-two; also to the said Peter, after the decease of Ursula Edwards, his natural mother, half of three tenements, and another tenement, in Northampton, and lands and half a tenement in Kingsthorpe, co. Northampton, Peter to pay to his brother Richard Edwards fifty pounds at the age of twenty-six; also to the said Peter, copyhold lands in Wittlesaie, co. Cambridge, after the decease of his mother, Peter to pay to his brother Robert Edwards forty pounds at the age of twenty-six. To my son Nicholas Edwards, forty pounds at the age of twenty-four, to be paid by his mother out of the lease of my farm and mills of Alwalton. To daughter Elizabeth Edwards, forty pounds at marriage or at age of twenty-four. To eldest daughter, Margaret Freeman, "one hoop-ring of gold worth by estimation thirty pounds." To wife Ursula Edwards for life, and at her decease to eldest son Peter. To my brother Nicholas Edwards. To my sister Amy Ludlowe. To my cousin Thomas Knappe. To my brother Thomas Ludlowe. To every cottager dwelling in the town of Allwalton, 4 d. Wife Ursula to be sole executrix, and brothers Nicholas Edwards and Thomas Ludlowe to be supervisors.

The parish registers of Alwalton, co. Huntingdon, contain an entry of the burial of Urseley Edwards on 2 Feb. 1606. She was the widow of Edward Edwards, and the grandmother of Alice (Freeman) (Tompson) Parke.

THE FAMILY OF REV. NATHANIEL BREWSTER

By Donald Lines Jacobus, M.A., of New Haven, Conn.

III. The Brewsters and the Castle of Bristol

In the first two chapters we have given an historical resumé of the early accounts of the Brewster family, with the object of separating original tradition from later impositions of conjecture and opinion; and have set forth the large amount of circumstantial evidence that Nathaniel Brewster was son of Francis, and the clues pointing to the origin of the Francis Brewster family in England. Before making a study of English sources, we now present absolute record proof that Nathaniel was son of Francis. Despite all the controversy for many years, no investigator (including the present writer) has presented this evidence, though it has always been readily available. It is a late confirmation deed given by Nathaniel's son Timothy to the sale of his grandfather Francis Brewster's lands in New Haven.

The first volume of deeds in New Haven does not begin until 1679, over thirty years after the death of Francis. Before that, entry was merely made in the town records that one man "passed over" land to another. Dr. Pell, having married Francis Brewster's widow, sold the Brewster lands through his attorney in New Haven in 1652, 1654 and 1655 [New Haven Town Records, vol. 1, pp. 118, 225, 254]. No adult son of Francis Brewster was then living in this country, and Pell with the widow and a couple of Brewster girls had moved to Fairfield. Pell doubtless sold in right of his wife, the widow Brewster, and as representing the children, such lax methods being not uncommon at that period. The confirmation deed which follows was not given

NOTES ON THE PHILLIPPI FAMILY

The earliest record I found of John Phillippi, ancestor of the Wythe County, Virginia Phillippis, was his marriage record in Warwich Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He was married in 1757 so he was probably born in the 1730s.

The name Phillippi has been spelled in various ways such as Phillipi and Philippi. It is a French Huguenot name and John or his parents undoubtedly came from France or from Germany, previously coming from the province of Alsace in France.

In about 1750 a Phillippi family emigrated from Eastern France to Pennsylvania settling in the vicinity of Reading. There was a son named John who married Juliana Ream in 1751. He was about the same age as John Phillippi who went to Wythe County, Virginia. However, we must not confuse these two men. They may have been related but they were not from the same immediate family.

From the records of Mr. Claude Unger, (deceased), a geneologist of Pottsville, Pennsylvania, there was a baptismal record that I found of interest. It states that Jacob Philippi, son of John Philippi and wife Christina, was born in Volesburg, (perhaps incorrectly spelled), Alsace, France on December 4, 1737. He was baptized on December 12, 1737, the sponsors being John Mathew Roth and Jacob Missner. No other details are given. However, there is a possiblitity that John of Wythe County could have been an older brother of Jacob but there is no proof of any relationship.

John Phillippi and Maria Eva Barbara Eichelberger, (see page 724), were married on August 2, 1757 at Warwich Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania by Rev. John Casper Stoever. They probably lived at Warwich Township, which was north of the present city of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, until about 1769 or 1770 as their daughter, Maria Margaretha was baptized there in May 1769 but their daughter Eve's birth and baptism in 1770 is not recorded there in the church records.

In about 1774 or 1775 John Phillippi and his family were living in what is now Wythe County, Virginia where he farmed. A few records relating to the family were found in Montgomery County records at Christiansburg and other records were found at the Wythe County court house and in the Lutheran Church records of Wythe County. The birth and baptismal records for most of his children were found in the Warwich Lutheran Church records in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. John and his family were active members of Zion Lutheran Church in Wythe County.

The following is a copy of John Phillippi's will.

"I John Phillippi of Wythe County, and State of Virginia do hereby make my last will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say.

1. I desire that all the perishable part of my estate be immediately sold after my death and out of the monies arising thereof all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid.

2. and after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses I give to my wife, Barbara one third part of my estate, both real and personal for and during the term of her natural life and after her death I give the same to my children herein mentioned real estate equally to be divided among my two sons John and Christian Phillippi and personal property equally divided among my several daughters.

3. and I give to my two sons John and Christian Phillippi all my lands in Wythe County equally to be divided to them and their heirs forever.

4thly I reserve for my daughter Barbara a decent way of living and maintenaning during her natural life in my aforesaid real estate to be given her by my two aforesaid sons John and Christian Phillippi.

5thly. All the personal estate of what nature or kind soever that may be not herein before particularly disposed of I desire may be equally divided among my several daughters.

And lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend Leonard Straw executor of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other or former wills or testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 23rd day of June, one thousand seven hundred ninety-eight, in the 22nd year of the Independence.

John ided on October 21, 1800 in Wythe County. Barbara was living in 1798 when the will was written but had died by 1823 when John's estate was settled.

Barbara Phillippi, (born at Warwich Township, Pennsylvania), died on August 29, 1758 at Warwick and is buried there.

John Phillippi, (born at Warwick Township, Pennsylvania), probably married in Virginia. He was living in Wythe County, Virginia in 1798 when his father's will was written. However, no mention was made in the settlement of the estate in 1823 so he may have died by then or moved out of the county. The names of his children are unknown at the present time.

Christopher Phillippi, (born at Warwick Township, Pennsylvania), married Elizabeth Steffey, (daughter of John Steffey), probably on March 6, 1787 in Montgomery County, Virginia. The court house record gives the date as 1777 but that must be a mistake as they both would have been too young. They lived in the part of Montgomery County which is now Wythe County, Virginia. Christopher died on October 1, 1856 and Elizabeth died on October 22, 1856 in Wythe County, Virginia. They perhaps had the following children.

Their Children (others?)

Elizabeth
William	born August 30, 1802 baptized October 17, 1802 Sponsors: Henry Vaught and wife
Anna Marie	born June 2, 1805 baptized August 11, 1805 Sponsors: Sebastian Arney and wife
David	born November 2, 1811 baptized March 15, 1812

Christina Barbara Phillippi, (born at Warwick Township, Pennsylvania), was probably Christina Phillippi that married George Vaught.

Their Children (not complete)

Joseph	born February 16, 1798 baptized November 24, 1799 Sponsors: Christian Vaught and wife
Abraham	born September 21, 1801 baptized December 27, 1801 Sponsors: John Phillippi and Catherine Vaught

Sophia Barbara Phillippi, (born at Warwick Township, Pennsylvania), was probably the Barbara Phillippi who never married.

Christina Catherine Phillippi, (born at Warwick Township, Pennsylvania), was probably the Catherine Phillippi that married Henry Cullop.

Their Children ?

Christina?	born May 10, 1794 baptized June 29, 1794 Sponsors: Parents
Anna Maria	born August 21, 1796 Sponsors: Jacob Gose and wife

Maria Margaretha Phillippi, (born at Warwick Township, Pennsylvania), was probably the Margaret Phillippi that married Henry Bough on March 20, 1786 in Montgomery County, Virginia.

Their Children

Mary Magdalena	born July 3, 1796 baptized September 1796 Sponsor: Catherine Birkey
Christian	born January 10, 1804 baptized June 3, 1804 Sponsor: Christian Phillippi and wife

Eva Phillippi, (born in Pennsylvania or Virginia), married Frederick Copenhaver, (see page 714).

Magdalena Phillippi, (born in Pennsylvania or Virginia), married Peter Wiseley.

Their Children

Elizabeth	born May 26, 1799 baptized September 15, 1799 Sponsors: John Weizel and wife
Barbara	born August 28, 1803 baptized May 20, 1804 Sponsors: Christian Phillippi and wife

Christian Phillippi, (born in Virginia), and Catherine Dutton, (daughter of Philip Dutton), were married on April 30, 1799 in Wythe County, Virginia. Catherine must have died before 1834 as by then Christian had married Eva Pickle Snider, widow of Sebastian Snider. Their names appear together on a deed. Christian died in about 1843 in Wythe County, Virginia. Some of his children had moved to the West as this is mentioned in the settlement of his estate.

Their Children (not in order)

Peter
Barbara	born December 5, 1801 baptized March 21, 1862 Sponsors: Parents

REV. ALEXANDER PHILLIPPI

It is thought that the Phillippi Family had its origin in Southern Europe. As German immigrants, several individuals of the name appear in the records of Pennsylvania through the 1750's. There were four Johns, an Andrew, two Conrads, a George, a Michael, a Christian and an Adam. The first one to come to Western Virginia was a John who had married Maria Barbara Eva Eichelberger, daughter of Philip Frederick Eichelberger of Warick, York County, Pa., on Aug. 2, 1757. This John with his wife Eva joined the German migration to the South at the close of the Revolution and settled on a tract of land - 295 acres on the head waters of Reed Creek, in then Montgomery County.

This pioneer John Phillippi was an elder in St. Paul's congregation when the grant for the land for the permanent location of a house of worship was received. He was a man of deep religious conviction greatly concerned about the spiritual life of his family. It was the condition of his daughter, Barbara that was brought to the attention of the missionary minister Rev. Paul Henkel, when on one of his tours among the German families of Western Virginia. After attending Catechetical instruction fourteen days Barbara became very scrupulous and extremely conscientious in everything, and read in her catechism. She was weak and imagined death to be at hand. The other children were healthy and vexed Barbara so that she spoke in wrath and reprimanded them for their foolish talk. Feeling punished in her conscience she decided never to speak with some people, but wished to pour her heart out to the preacher, who was invited by her parents to their home where he addressed the child and served communion to her and her parents. Next morning when seen alone she gave answers to every question asked her. She was anxious about her many sins and promised to tell all her cares, but did not. On his return visit in 1789, while at the home of Thomas Copenhaver the women said that he must see Barbara Phillippi, that a dumb spirit possessed her and that she could be made to speak. On the second visit to the home on Sunday evening communion was administered especially to the old folks who could not attend church. While sitting by the fire Barbara answered by signs the questions addressed to her. When told that she could speak and must speak and that she could not obtain heaven by fasting and praying she turned her eyes in many ways under the bonnet she was wearing. When the bonnet was knocked off and she asked why one should not look her in the face she still would not speak. When commanded in the name of Jesus to talk she repeated part of the Lord's Prayer in concert and then finished it, following with the Creed and its explanation. Apparently to be relieved from further questioning she said that she was glad that she could talk and promised thereafter to speak decently to everyone.When told that Barbara was speaking, her father, an old man in another house said " Thank God that I hear my daughter speaking again."

In the settlement of his estate in 1823, the heirs mentioned were: Henry Bough and Margaret of Kentucky, Christian Vaught and Elizabeth, John Steffy and Rosanna, Christopher Phillippi and Elizabeth, Henry Cullop and Caty,Peter Wisely and Magdalena, George Vaught and Christina, Frederick Copenhaver and Eva, Mary Arney and Barbara Phillippi. These heirs sold their interest to their brother Christian Phillippi and his wife Catherine Duthering.Here, on the home place, Christian's son John took over. He married Mary Magdalena Wisely and it was this couple who became the parents of Alexander Phillippi, and in addition Daniel, Zacariah, Andrew, Christopher, John, Mary and Magdalena. All of these children except the girls age 4 and 6 were in school in 1850. The mother could not read or write.

This family of Phillippis appears to have been associated with the congregation of Zion rather than at St. Paul's, perhaps from the location of their homes and there being a regular pastor in that community. Alexander was born July 25, 1832 and baptized at Zion church after the retirement of the first pastor Dr. Stanger. We can only guess at the type of school the children attended. If Barbara forty years earlier could read the catechism and explain the Creed they were not growing up in ignorance. In ~~1809~~,1810 the first John Phillippi in his will, directed that Barbara should be cared for by his sons John and Christian to whom he had given his land.

In his early twenties young Alexander announced his desire to become a minister and became a beneficiary of the Education and Missionary Society of Southwest Virginia Synod. Any pious young man who possessed ordinary talent, was indigent and gave evidence of personal piety and was connected with the Lutheran Church was then eligible for aid. Later an applicant must have attended one year of college on his own before he could be received as a beneficiary. Among the seven graduates of the class of 1857 at Roanoke College we find Alexander Phillippi of Wythe County the only student there from the county in a period of ten years. He continued his studies at Gettysburg Theological Seminary finishing the courses in 1859. After a brief service in mission work in Western North Carolina under the direction of the North Carolina Synod he returned to Virginia and was engaged to explore the mission at Lynchburg. He reported to the Southwest Virginia Synod in session at Sharon in August 1860 where he was examined and received, as a member. On Oct. 18, 1860 he was married to Miss Cynthia Brown, daughter of Capt. Joseph Brown and his wife Sarah Hudson Brown. Miss Cynthia was a member of St. John's congregation and had attended the meeting of Synod and made a contribution to the Education and Missionary Society.

Wytheville Public Library

The next year he was ordained and departed for the service in the Confederate Army becoming Chaplain of the 29th Virginia Regiment. In 1862 he reported on the trials of camp life and informed the Synod that he preached frequently to his fellow soldiers and had reason to believe that his labors had been blessed. At the meeting of Synod at St. Peter's in Montgomery County in 1863, by urgent request of the members Brother Phillippi, chaplain of the 29th Virginia Regiment delivered an encouraging and interesting address relative to the spiritual condition of the army of Northern Virginia. On motion it was resolved that a collection be taken, to be placed in the hands of Bro. Phillippi in order that he might dispose of it for the benefit of the army as he thought best. At the meeting of the Education and Missionary Society Rev. Phillippi addressed the congregation on the subject of contributions for the army, after which a flood of contributions and pledges was received. Donations ran as high as thirty and forty dollars. Many of the Generals of the Southern Army, local soldiers and President Jefferson Davis were made lifetime members of the society.

Through the war years affairs at St. John's were somewhat unsettled. In 1862 the congregation there had been constituted a parish district- a charge with only one congregation- the only one in that category in the Synod. Rev. Roedel and McDonald had served the charge jointly until the death of Roedel in 1865. McDonald was then Treasurer of the Synod and interested in continuing the College and holding on to St. John's. Pastor Brown was preoccupied with his Cripple Creek Congregations and suffering from an undeserved humiliation in the collapse of his College Project. In spite of the confusion in the church work of the community there was an attractive opening at St. John's and the young soldier minister,Rev. Alexander Phillippi stepped into it. He had been present at the meeting of Synod in '65 and as the new pastor of St. John's he reported in ' 66 one congregation with 90 members, 100 in Sunday School, while McDonald had one with 89 members. Phillippi's delegate was the young ministerial student Stephen A. Repass. For a while there were Phillippi Lutherans and McDonald Lutherans in the community. Phillippi's marriage into one of the most influential families in the congregation increased his prestige and aided him in his ambitious plans for the future.

Through 1867 and '68 the influence of St. John's congregation was enhanced by having all the executive officers of the Synod. Rev. J.A. Brown was President, Rev. Alex. Phillippi ,Secretary, and E.H. McDonald Treasurer. In '68 S.A. Repass succeeded Phillippi as Secretary. At the commencement of Roanoke College in June 1867 the Rev. Alexander Phillippi of Wytheville delivered an address before the alumni association which was " quite creditable to both himself and the institution of which he was a graduate ". He was that year made a member of the Board of Trustees. In '68 he could report 100 members in his congregation and in '69 there were 112.

For awhile after his marriage he resided with his wife's family in the Cove and taught in the neighborhood schools. In 1870 he turned his attention towards the town for a wider field for his educational efforts. He and George R. Hufford, a recent graduate of Roanoke College and a member of his congregation, conducted a sort of a community school over the McWane foundry which school was open to the public and well attended, so that it was later claimed by some that Mr. Phillippi started the public school system in Wythe County. The next step was to secure a lot for a home in the town and the beginning of a preaching mission. He could now report 120 members in his congregation.

The Synod was turning towards Marion as the place for the next effort to establish a Female College with Rev. J.J. Scherer as Superintendent. The Lutheran families residing in Wytheville disheartened by the failure of their College and discouraged because of the refusal of further use of the Courthouse for worship decided to build a Church of their own and arrange with St. John's Pastor Phillippi for services. The need for school facilities in the town and plan for a church building led the young minister into two ambitious projects- the building of Holy Trinity Church and the opening of Trinity Hall Female College. After securing a lot for a home and a plan for the church he was able to have the church dedicated in 1875 and to open his school in September of 1877.

Through 1871 -2- 3 and 4 he continued teaching, his congregation steadily growing and his interest in the Synod increasing. In '73 he was elected Treasurer of the Synod, but was not included on a long list of prominent Lutherans nominated for the Board of Trustees for the new Feamle College of Marion. However, his brother- in-law N.H.Repass and Rev. James A. Brown from St. John's were among the nominees. His delegate to the Synod at Cedar Grove in Smyth County was his friend and co-worker G.R. Huffard. In '74 he had lost six members, 2 by death and 4 by letter, and had 133 members with a Sunday School of 60 scholars. In '75 there were 136 members, in '76, 148, and in '77 there were 150. St. John's apportionment for the Synod's Treasury was then $ 70 next to Salem which was the highest with $ 100. The Synod had returned to St. John's for its meeting in 1875, while Rev. Brown was still President and Alex.Phillippi Treasurer. During this session there was preaching by the members of the Synod in the

Mrs. H.L. Calvert,
6219 Cochran St.,
Houston, Texas, 77022

Dear Mrs. Calvert:

This is the first time I have had a really quiet spell around here, and so I decided to check over those D.A.R. applications and also my information on Eichelbergers and Phillippies.

To the best of our knowledge and records, the John Phillippie who married Maria Eva Barbara Eichelberger came from Warwick Township. This is north of the present city of Lancaster, and their children were born and baptized there up until 1770. The Warwich Lutheran Church records found in Philadelphia, Pa. have this information. As you recall about 1774 Phillippi's are in what is now Wythe Co.

Therefore all records of service for any Eichelberger must in some way connect with Warwick area of Pennsylvania. Eva Barbara was born there, therefore her parents must have lived there. She was born 1739 and was still living there at the time of her marriage. Her father was John George Eichelberger, who came to America in 1733. It appears to me that he, the father, would be too old for the Revolution, he being born in 1704. As you have discovered there ar other Eichelbergers in York Co. Pa. and in Maryland. But your family were only in Warwick, Pa. as far as we know.

You have filled in a blank on page 724 with the name Juliana Ream. You have confused the Eichelberger and Phillipi families. See D.A.R. paper 456959 on Phillippis. Mr. Canfield in his book mentions also several John Phillippis and one came about 1750 from France to Penna. settling near Reading. There was a son named John who married Juliana Ream in 1751. He, John, was about the same age as the John Phillippi who came to Wythe Co. There was also a Jacob son of John and Christina Phillippi who was born in France 1737.

Unless you can find some public service record for John George Eichelberger in or around Warwick Township, Pa. I doubt if you could find a service record at his age... at least it would be unusual.

None of these other D.A.R. papers seem to apply to your line. So just disregard them for those purposes.

I have company due in any minute, so will close here. You do not owe me anything for this letter. Glad to hear from you again. Did I send you notice of my new publication ? I will enclose. I also would like to mention another book due off the press any day at $ 12.50 called Wythe County Chapters by James Presgraves. It is a compilation

THEY CAME TO KENTUCKY

Chiefly pertaining to Boone, Pulaski, Lincoln, Gallatin, and Casey Counties, Kentucky. To these localities my forebears journeyed from Virginia, North Carolina, and Maryland in the early 1800's.

Christianna Philippi married George Vaught, Sr., presumably in Wythe County, Virginia. They were my great-great grandparents, since one of their children was Mary Vaught, who married Wesley Carson. I have thus far been unable to trace the Philippi lineage. However, many Philippis still reside in Wythe County and in Pulaski County, Kentucky. This family is related to me not only in the aforementioned instance, but through inter-marriage with Bishops and Gastineaus, from whom I am also descended. The name is variously spelled Phillippi, Philippe, Phillipy, Filipy, Philipy, etc.

Philippi Canyon on the Columbia River Highway in Oregon is a well-known landmark. The Philippi ranch is owned by Roy Philippi. Their ranch was featured several years ago in a pictorial magazine.

Thanks again for the wonderful material you sent. Later when I get more stamps I'll send one for the postage. At least, I can help in that little way.

I'll be eager to hear from you again.

Dear Mrs Calvert:

I have received the John Philippi material and your nice note. I am sorry not to have written sooner but the temperature - as most everywhere, I guess - has been so uncomfortable and makes me extremely lazy. Too, I'll be 71 in September and am not as peppy as I once was.

Thank you so much for a copy of your "Philippi proof" and will - I certainly appreciate your kindness and the time you took in preparing the information for me.

Yes, I do have a copy of Judge Vaught's book, "A Partial History of the Vaught Family." His daughter sent me one of the three last copies that she had. Wasn't that nice of her?

Here are some "tidbits" I thought you might like to have. Our regent of Francis Vigo Chapter 1970-1972 was Mrs. Clarence Bobe (Irene Wilson) who was a descendant of Christopher Phillippi (son of John) through Christopher's son William who came to Knox Co. ~~Ind.~~ - probably at the same time that John and Christianna (Vaught) Horn came in 1835-1836. She (Mrs. Bobe) went into DAR on Christopher Phillippi's line and one of her daughters went in just about three years ago on the John Steffy line. Christopher's wife was Elizabeth Steffy, dau. of John Steffy by his first wife. Rosanna (of) Phillippi was John Steffy's second wife. Both Christopher Phillippi and John Steffy were Rev. Soldiers. I am descended from the Steffys through John's brother Henry. But so far no military record has been

I have that Barbara's first name as Maria Barbara Eva Eichelberger and that her father, Frederick, was born in Germany. (See http://www.indwes.edu/Academics/Personal/bcupp/genes/d0000/g0000040.htm#I519.)
I don't know if Barbara was native or also an immigrant.

I don't have much on John ... for instance, your "b c1736 PA" is news to me. Can you send me all the details you have on him, or his wife?
Thanks.

Dear Vivian,

Lonnie Fink gave me your name and told me you were also on the "Phillippi Hunt". Seems the whole world is doing the same thing.

What line are you tracing? Mine goes something like this:

John/Johannes Phillippi m. Eichelberger;
Christian Phillippi m. Dutton;
Peter Phillippi m. Fox;
George Wampler Phillippi m. Smith;
Delia Phillippi m. Ooley
Carl Ooley m. Goodman;
Evelyn Ooley (my mom);
Gayle Bennett (Me).

Does that make any sense? Looking forward to hearing from you Vivian!

All the best,

Gayle Phillippi Bennett

Dear Vivian,

Lonnie Fink gave me your name and told me you were also on the "Phillipp Hunt". Seems the whole world is doing the same thing.

What line are you tracing? Mine goes something like this:

John/Johannes Phillipp m. Elizabeth;
Christian Phillipp m. Dutton;
Peter Phillipp m. Fox;
George Wampler Phillipp m. Smith;
Dora Phillipp m. Oxley
Dot Oxley m. Goodman;
Evelyn Oxley (my mom);
Gayle Bennett (Me).

Does that make any sense? Looking forward to hearing from you VMan!

All the best,

Gayle Phillipp Bennett

My Dear Vivian,

What a pleasant surprise! I'm so happy to hear from you. Yes, this genealogy stuff is fun, frustrating, but fun! I always tell everyone that the joy of researching the dead, is finding the living, and especially such nice cousins.

You're on the Vaught Line! Gosh, there are so many of us working on the Phillippi line and I keep running into more. I haven't gotten into the Vaught line much, except I know they're out there. Seems the Phillippis, Vaughts, Steffeys, Wamplers,Copenhavers, Duttons, etc. have all been together for such a long time and doing a lot of intermarrying. I will give you my line and then we can start from there:

John/Johannes Phillippi b. 1936 (new info shows he may have been born in 1728). I've been doing some investigating, but at this point, not getting anything. Mr. Canfield has his birth date as 1728; I trust his figures at this point. Anyway, my John married Eva Barbara Eichelberger in 1757 in PA.

I'm from their son Christian b. about 1777 married Catherine Dutton; their son, Peter Phillippi b. 1800 married Rebecca Fox;
their son, George Wampler Phillippe b. 1833 married Mary Smith; their daughter, Delia Phillippe b. about 1875 married William V. Ooley; their son, Carl Ooley b. 1899 married Hazel Goodman;
their daughter Evelyn Ooley b. 1922 is my mother.

If you have the capabilities to receive a GEDCOM file, I will have my husband send you mine when he returns from his business trip at the end of the week. I still haven't figured out how to send them yet. I suppose I could learn, but always depended on my hubby for that.

You'll like Mr. Canfield's book. It has John Phillippi's will and so much good information. Let me know if you think his information is correct; somehow I think it is. At least I'm hoping it is.

I told Lonnie that I called the DAR to get the Revolutionary War paperwork on John Phillippi. They told me to fill out the application and send a check, which I did. Now it's a waiting game. Takes about 2 months. When I get any information, I'll have my husband scan it into the computer and send everyone a copy via Internet. I was hoping for something "fancy", like a certificate or something that I could frame; they said it's just some typed papers. Oh well.

Will be tied up the remainder of the week; starting a new job tomorrow so it will take some "settling in" for me.
Sure enjoyed hearing from you Vivian and please, keep in touch. If you don't hear from me right away, don't think that I've forgotten about you, O.K.?

All the very best,

Dayle Bennett

Dear Lonnie,

So nice to hear from you. I love sharing information with other cousins. At this point, I think Mr. Canfield's book is the most thorough, and accurate. He spent a lot of time in Germany (he and his wife taught in Germany) and it sounds as though he "viewed" the documents regarding the Phillippi folks when he was in Europe. He has a different birth date for our John/Johannes Phillippi and there's several of us trying to figure out which birth date is correct, 1928 or 1936. Mr. Canfield shows a birth date, bapt date and sponsors. I feel comfortable, at this point, with his information. This is his sixteenth (and last)book he will write. He has also included the Eichelberger line (John's wife) and information on the Vaught line. I don't think you'll be disappointed with the book. It's $20.00 and he's very prompt in sending the book, once he receives your check. $20.50

Yes Lonnie, I would love whatever you have on the Phillippi's. I'm sure I haven't as much as you because I just started this line two or three months ago. Been working on the Ooley line for quite a while since I hit a roadblock on that line, have switched to the Phillippi line and have found it so interesting. I especially like the idea that John Phillippi was in the Revolutionary War and that he and his son, Christopher, are both in the DAR Patriot Index. I have sent paperwork and a check to the DAR to get more information. They said it takes a couple of months for a response. Whenever I get the information from DAR, I'll have my husband scan it into the computer and then send everyone a copy. I was told that it gives the name of the last person to use John Phillippi's name to join the DAR.

My husband left on a business trip this morning and won't be back until Wed or Thurs. I will have him send you my GEDCOM file as soon as he returns. If you ever find any incorrect information in my files, just let me know. I always want to be as accurate as possible and try to document everything. The lady at the DAR told me she took "someone's word" for one of her ancestors and traced him for two years, only to find out it was the wrong ancestor.

An Engineer huh? That means you have an analytical mind, that's good, because I don't. I'm sure you already have all of this stuff figured out, don't you?

Thanks for the name of another "cousin". The more the merrier! All the Phillippi cousins have been terrific. Some are exceptionally good researchers. How many have you been in touch with?

Incidentally, I live in Florida if I didn't mention it before; where do you live? My address is"

Will wind this up Lonnie, and sure appreciate hearing from you. I will be starting back to work on Tuesday, so unfortunately, will have to curtail my trips to the library, DARN IT!!! I may go into "withdrawal" and need to have some time off! I wonder if I can get Workers' Comp for "Genealogy Withdrawal"! Naaa! Oh well. Take care and let me hear from you.

THE GENEALOGY OF FREDERICK COPENHAVER

WOLFGANG COPENHAVER

WOOLF (short for Wolfgang) COPENHAVER was among the 'Palatine' passengers listed on board the ship 'Pensilvania Merchant', John Stedman, Master, which discharged its human cargo at the Port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on September 11, 1732 (Strassburger and Hinke, Pennsylvania German Pioneers, Vol. 1, Page 66). With him were his son, Michael, wife, Anna Maria, and daughters, Anna Barbara, Anna Rosina and Anna Catharina.

Also, on September 11, 1732, in Philadelphia, WOLFF COPENHAVER (this is the way the name is shown on this list) and his son, Michael, took the Oath of Allegiance, as required by law, in order to qualify for admission into the Colony of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Eugene F. Koppenhaver, of Canoga Park, California, in his German research, learned that a Hanns Wolff Koppenhöfer sold his farm in Rüblingen, Germany in 1732 to Johann Michael Franck. Also, he paid taxes there in 1732. (Hanns is thought to have been a common nickname.)

According to someone (name unknown by us) doing research on the Smyser (Schmeisser) family (Smyser Family In America 1731-1931), it was learned that Anna Catharina, the youngest daugther of Wolff Copenhaver, was born in Rüblinger. It would be fairly safe to assume, therefore, that the Wolff Copenhaver, of the Pensilvania Merchant passenger list was the same one who sold his farm in Rüblingen in 1732.

According to Dr. Friedrich Krebs, State Archivist, Speyer, Germany, the word 'Palatine' was a broadly used word, and more often than not, was used to designate all those immigrants from anywhere in Germany. Whether or not Rüblingen was located in the Palatinate section of Germany is a question I am not prepared to answer at this time.

Wolfgang Koppenhöfer (Copenhaver) and his family settled in Heidelberg township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, near Johann Thomas Copenhaver (Koppenhöfer — Koppenhaver), another son, who had arrived in the Colony of Pennsylvania on September 11, 1728. Today Heidelberg township is Jackson township, Lebanon County, Pennsylvania.

In 1736, the name Johann Wolfgang Koppenhöfer, along with other names appeared on a petition for, or about a road in Heidelberg township, Pennsylvania.

Prior to 1743 Wolfgang Koppenhöfer and his family attended 'Reeds Church', at Stouchburg, Pennsylvania. In 1743 they became charter members of 'Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church', located between Myerstown and Stouchburg, Pennsylvania. He and some of the older members of his family are believed buried in the older part of the Church cemetery.

Wolfgang Koppenhöfer was a farmer, but we have found no evidence of his having owned land in Pennsylvania. It is likely that he continued to farm the land on which he settled when he first came to Pennsylvania for as long as he was able to do so. There does seem to be some evidence that he spent the last few years of his life in the home of his son, Michael. Death is believed to have occurred about 1763.

JOHANN THOMAS COPENHAVER

(Koppenhöfer)

The name Thomas Koppenheffer appears on a list of "mens names above 16 years old aboard ye James Goodwill, David Crokatt, Commander" which arrived in the Port of Philadelphia, in Pennsylvania, on September 11, 1728. Also, he is shown to have taken the Oath of Allegiance on that same date, but here his name is recorded as Thomas Kopenhaver (Strassburger and Hinke, Pennsylvania German Pioneers, Vol. I, pages 21 and 22).

Thomas Copenhaver is known to have settled in Heidelberg township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, near the present-day town of Myerstown, as his first child was born there in July 1729. In 1739 he finally purchased the land on which he had been living, presumably from the William Penn heirs (Map by Rev. P. B. Gibble).

Thomas Copenhaver was married three times. His first wife, Anna Maria Zinn (d. 1746), the daughter of Peter Zinn, whom he married in 1728, was the mother of his seven children. In 1747, Thomas was married to Anna Elizabeth Holtzman, "recently from Germany". She was born in 1715 and died 6-2-1748 at the age of 33 years and 5 months. Then on January 25, 1749, he was married to Catherine Elizabeth Lehman, a widow.

Prior to 1743, Thomas Copenhaver attended 'Reeds' Church, but in 1743, became a charter member of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church, located between Myerstown and Stouchburg.

On June 10, 1758 Thomas Copenhaver deeded his 'plantation' in Heidelberg township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania to his son, Henry Koppenhaver (Copenhaver), also of Heidelberg township, as revealed by Lancaster County Deed Book F-261. He died prior to December 31, 1760, as on that date, his widow, Elizabeth Copenhaver was granted "Letters of Administration from the Register General for the Probate of Wills," the obligation of which was to "administer all and singular the Goods and Chattels, Rights and Credits, which were of Thomas Copenhofer, deceased", —.

On January 7, 1761 Andres Kreutzer and Wilhelm Hoffer made an "Inventory of the Goods and Chattles, Rights and Credits of Thomas Copenhaver." I shall not attempt to make a complete list, but a partial listing might be of interest to many:

His Apparel —
A Rifle, a Smooth Rifle —
A Gun Shot pouch and Powder Horn —
2 Hym Books, and other small prayer books —
A Large Bible, Sundry other books —
Pewter spoons, plates and dishes —
Brass Kettle and Skimmer —
A Spinning Wheel and Reel —
10 yards Tow 'Linnen' —
A Mare and Colt —
5 Sheep —
2 swarms of bees —
A Still —
2 Cows and a calf —
An Iron Stove, —
Etc.

The four sons and a son-in-law of Thomas Copenhaver were advanced sums of money during the life time of Thomas, that is to say —

Henry Coppenhaver	£ 50.0.0
Michael Koppenheffer	50.0.0
Simon Copenhaver	50.0.0
Thomas Copenhaver (Captain)	6.0.0

and the above agreed that all the children should have an equal share of their father's estate, with the money advanced to them to be a part of their inheritance. This agreement was made in writing and on March 2, 1762 was presented to Orphans Court when final settlement was made. (Miscellaneous Docket 1760-63:

Page 114; Register and Recorder's Office, Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania). Elizabeth Coppeheffer, Administratrix of the Goods and Chattels of Thomas Coppenheffer 'produced' to the Court the Act of her Administration on the Estate of the deceased, whereby there appeared then a balance on her hands of Total £ 388.17.2 to be distributed as the Orphan Court shall direct. Distribution was made as follows:

CAPTAIN JOHN THOMAS COPENHAVER

John THOMAS Copenhaver, born in Heidelberg township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in 1739, was confirmed at Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church on Whitsunday, 1754, at age fifteen years. He was married three times. He was married first, about 1759, to Catherine Mosser (Moser), the eldest daughter of Jacob and Catherine (Hedrick) (Heydrich) Mosser (Moser). Jacob Mosser, born ca. 1710, died Oct. 13, 1758, was the second son of Hans Adam Mosser and his wife, Anna Maria Boehm, who came to the American Colonies with Johann Thomas Copenhaver on the James Goodwill on September 11, 1728.

On October 27, 1778, Thomas Copenhaver was married to Elizabeth Miese (Meese), the daughter of John Miese (Meese) of Bethel township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. She died in Virginia in 1783 shortly after the birth of her son, Samuel.

Late in 1783 or early in 1784, Captain Thomas Copenhaver returned to Hanover township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and there prior to April 13, 1784 was married to Miss Julianna Siek (Sieg), the daughter of Paul Siek (Sieg). On that date, Captain Thomas Copenhaver and his wife Julianna sold her share of her father's farm to her brother Paul for the sum of thirty-three pounds. This document states — "he — of the State of Virginia", and "she — of Hanover township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania". They signed this document in person — he as THOMAS COPPENHAVER, and she with an X mark for her name. This document was witnessed by Michael Moyers, apparently Captain Thomas Copenhaver's son-in-law.

Also, on April 13, 1784, Julianna Sieg Copenhaver and Captain Thomas Copenhaver entered into a marriage bond, which was recorded in Montgomery County, Virginia on August 25, 1784. This bond concerned some money (200 pounds) Julianna took into the marriage.

Julianna Sieg Copenhaver was the mother of only one of Captain Thomas Copenhaver's children — (Molly) Magdalena.

In early 1780, having served his committment in the Revolutionary War, Captain Thomas Copenhaver disposed of his holdings in Hanover township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and joined the migrations to Virginia. He settled near Crockett, in the present-day Wythe County, Virginia, several miles east of Rural Retreat, where he spent the rest of his life.

On June 15, 1798 Captain Thomas Copenhaver was granted a license, in Wythe County, Virginia, to retail goods, and on November 14, 1797 was fined for refusing to serve as a juror.

Captain John Thomas Copenhaver died intestate in Wythe County, Virginia in 1802. The exact location of his grave is not known, as most of the early gravestones have disappeared. There were two Lutheran churches near his home — St. Paul's Lutheran Church, the older of the two, and Zions Lutheran Church. He is probably buried in the church yard of one of these, but that is a search for a future time.

The family of Captain Thomas Copenhaver:—

1. MARIA CATHARINE (b. July 8, 1760 in Pennsylvania), married June 24, 1777 in Pennsylvania, Michael Moyers. They did not migrate to Virginia at the same time as her father (1780) but seemed to have joined the family there at a later date. They probably came with her father and his third wife in 1784.
2. THOMAS (born July 16, 1763 in Pennsylvania/died in Missouri before September 26, 1838), married Barbara Staley. Thomas, his wife and a number of their children migrated to Missouri in 1831. As you can readily see, Thomas and Barbara were quite old at the time.
3. CHRISTINA, or Christianna (born in Pennsylvania), married Michael Braun (Brown).
4. FREDERICK (born January 1, 1770 in Pennsylvania/died January 30, 1836 or February 20, 1836 in Smyth County, Virginia), married about 1789 in Wythe County, Virginia, Eve Phillippi (born July 1, 1770/died July 7, 1857 in Smyth County, Virginia). They moved to Smyth County, Virginia (present-day) in 1800.
5. ELIZABETH, married February 17, 1795 Phillip Wissman (today this is spelled Whisman). They removed to Lee County, Virginia.
6. MARY, married February 1796, in Virginia, John Wissman. They removed to Lee County, Virginia.
7. JOHN, (died February 17, 1836 in Alabama), married May 4, 1800 in Kentucky, Hannah Barrier. He migrated to

FREDERICK COPENHAVER

Frederick Copenhaver, the son of Captain Thomas Copenhaver and Catherine Mosser, his first wife, was born in Hanover township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on January 1, 1770. In 1789, in Wythe County, Virginia, he was married to Eve (or Eva*) Phillippi, born July 1, 1770, the daughter of John Phillippi and Maria Eva Eichelberger.

The Frederick Copenhaver family continued to live in Wythe County, Virginia, in at least several locations, until about 1799-1800, as evidenced by church records of the birth and baptism of a number of their children. Their latter years in Wythe County were spent not far from Kimberling (Kimberlin) Lutheran Church, which is near Black Lick.

After their move to present-day Smyth County (Smyth County was not established until 1832), Frederick and his family lived for a year or so just south of Seven Mile Ford — going south from the old Preston home.

On June 8, 1801, an 'indenture' was made between Frederick Copenhaver and Samuel McReynolds, "both of Washington County, Virginia", transferring the one hundred ninety-one acres of land where Frederick Copenhaver spent the rest of his life. (Charles C. Meek, a descendant of Thomas A. Copenhaver and Rachel T. Tilson, has this handwritten document). It is likely that Frederick took possession of this property very soon afterwards, as on November 27, 1804 Frederick Copenhaver purchased an additional sixty-three acres of land from Samuel McReynolds, and by that time Samuel McReynolds was of 'Blunt' (Blount) County, Tennessee. Frederick paid $126.00 for this latter tract of land.

Frederick Copenhaver built a fairly large, well built log home for his family on this farm, which stood for well over one hundred years, and was lived in much of that time. Nearby was the log barn he built, which is still in use today (1979).

Frederick acquired other tracts of land, some of which he later sold, but in 1833 he paid taxes on 281 acres of land. In 1816, however, he paid taxes on 354 acres of land.

Frederick Copenhaver and his family attended Zions Lutheran Church, located near his home, and he, Eve and at least a daughter-in-law are buried in the church yard of this church. Zions Church was later sold to the Methodist group, when Ebenezer Church was built, and became Mt. Zion United Methodist Church.

Frederick Copenhaver died at his home on January 30, 1836, or we have seen this date given — February 20, 1836. Eve survived him by better than twenty years — her death occurring July 7, 1857.

Even though EVA appears on the new gravestone, there has been some discussion as to which of the names, EVE or EVA was the correct one for Frederick's wife, so we present the following bits of evidence:

1. Henry and Barbara (Phillippi) Copenhaver had a 'certificate' of their births made, as many German families did. This is a rather large document — handwritten in German. There were hand painted flowers on the border and this was framed and hung in their home. The names of their parents are given. — The literal translation of Henry's mother's name is EVA, but we have been advised by several people familiar with American-German research that this is the way EVE, Adam's mate, appears in the German language Bible. (Mrs. Mary C. Pennington, Route 2, Marion, Virginia 24354 owns this old document).

2. We don't know about the daughters of Frederick Copenhaver, but the sons could read and write. We have several handwritten notes signed by two of them — David Campbell Copenhaver and Henry Copenhaver, and we have seen others.

   A. On July 10, 1841, David Campbell Copenhaver gave his mother, EVE COPENHAVER, a note for five dollars "free of interest for one bay mare purchased of her." Surely David knew his mother's name.

   B. On the 4th of April, 1836 EVE COPENHAVER gave her son-in-law, George Dutton, a receipt for seven dollars and twenty cents. It is signed by Eve Copenhaver.

3. In 1848, Mrs. EVE Copenhaver paid taxes in Smyth County, Virginia (Charles C. Meek has this handwritten receipt).

4. Chrisley Copenhaver's death record is the only one we have found that gives the names of both parents — and it is shown as FREDERICK and EVE Copenhaver. This information was given by Chrisley's son, Wayman Madison Copenhaver. Wayman, born March 9, 1838, after his grandfather's death was almost grown up when his grandmother died. Since he lived near her, he must have known her well. Surely he also knew her name.

5. We have in our possession a letter written by Rev. John Thomas Huddle (2-13-1870/1940), one of the grandsons of Thomas A. Copenhaver. This letter, written on September 21, 1922, is addressed to "my dear Cousin". I do not know to whom this letter was originally sent, nor do I recall how we came by it, though I suspect it was in those papers given to us by Dr. J. Earl Copenhaver. Rev. Huddle was minister of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church, 11th and H Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. He was attempting to 'commission' this unknown cousin to make a search into the Copenhaver family history.

   He gave some data which he took from the original gravestone: He gave Frederick's wife's name as EVE.

In the Beginning-----When we began the research of the Phillippe Family in 1974 the beginning for us was William David Phillippe 1872-1962. We knew he came from Mountain City, Tenn. to Indiana at the age of 18 and that was all we knew of his background. In our wildest imagination did we ever dream that by correspondence, by conversing, by visiting and by reading that the story of the Phillippe Family would unfold before us. And what an interesting story!!!

European records of the family are sketchy. One story has us connected to King Louis XIV as being the decendants of him and his second mistress--via the Duke of Orleans. This has not been documented, however. Reverend Alexander Phillippe tells us that the ancestoral home of the family (and this is the more probable) was in Leipsic, Germany where men of this name occupied professional chairs in the University of Leipsic for 300 years. [1*] Since the family was traditionally Huguenot or Protestant, religious pressures of the day probably forced them to migrate to eastern France, southern Germany, Holland and finally to the United States.

On 28 August 1750, Johannes Phillippe came to the court-house in Philadelphia, Pa. on the ship Phoenix under the master, John Mason from Rotterdam via Cowes in England (with whole freights from Zweybrech, Nassau, Wirtemberg, and Palatinate).[2] Other Phillippe's had arrived the year before plus several on the same ship as Johanne (John) so we assume they were related, but do not know the relationship.

John apparantly settled in Warwich Twp., Lancaster Co., Pa. as that is where he married Maria Eva Barbara Eichelberger in 1757.[3] They had eight of their 13 children---Barbara who lived only a few weeks and was buried there, Christopher (Stoppel), Christina Barbara, Anna Elizabeth, Sophia Barbara, Christine Catherine and Maria Margaretta---while living in Warwich Twp. as their birth and babtismal records were found in the Warwich Evangelical Lutheran Church Records.

* All references are listed by number on page 13 of this book except birth, death, marriage, deeds, etc. which were found in the respective courthouses.

Around 1769, along with considerable numbers of other Germans, they started their migration southward and settled on 295 acres on the Headwaters of Reed Creek in what is now Wythe County, Virginia. Again, Reverend Alexander Phillippe states that, with few exceptions, the German people who settled in this area had some means and were hardy, industrious, moral, intelligent, Christian people.

In going through historical records and pictures of the years of 1749-1800 one finds that the pioneer women depended on buckskins for their clothing due to the deep penetration made into the mountains far away from any source of cloth supplies. A few home spun dresses were made from flax and wool, but few sheep, if any, were first brought deep into the mountains. The linsey and woolsey cloth would tear and rip on the briars and snag in the brush and would not stand up under rough frontier wear. The tough deer skins would wear for years.

It was a common sight to see "Granny" dressed in buckskins, slipping through the woods without any noise to bark a squirrel. [4]

Another interesting story of the early mountain pioneers was the outdoor restrooms consisting of sections of new ground known as "his" and "hers". They would dig about 200 holes or more about 18 inches apart and then after the restroom was used they would fill the holes up and have hills to plant corn and beans in as fertilizer was unknown to them then. Since toilet paper wasn't available, they gathered and dried moss (which also served as Pampers!).

Schoolhouses, which for the time, were also used as places of public worship, were among the first and most expensive places erected. [5] When St. Paul's Lutheran Church* about 3 miles NE of Rural Retreat, Va. was organized in 1776, John Phillippe was an elder and a member. On 13 Sept 1782, the elders bought 100 acres for the purpose of constructing a building and for the minister to make a living from. [8]

* St. Paul Lutheran Church is the oldest Lutheran Church in Va. west of the New River. The original communion cloth made from home grown flax was used until 1916 and is still on display in the church.

Signatures on the deed besides John Phillippe were: Martin Kimberling, Micheal Steffy, and Micheal Wampler. The church was known as the Kimberland Church. [6]

In 1825, another church was started at Asbury Campground, presumably for ease in travel and location. John and George Phillippe were among the elders listed on the deed.

When the Revolutionary War broke out, John and his son, Christopher, joined in the fighting for Captain Buchanan's Co. [7] We know that Christopher at approximately 96 years of age received land for his services through an act of Congress 3 Mar 1855. Christopher also received two land grants--one in 1774 of 196 acres and a second in 1785 signed by Patrick Henry. *

John and his wife, Barbara, had five more children during this time---Eve, Magdalena, Mary, Christian and Rosina. [3]

An interesting story on the first family was found in the Kegley Library at the Wytheville Community College---It seems that one of John's daughters, Barbara, after attending Catechetical instruction for two weeks, became very scrupulous and extremely conscientious. She was weak and imagined death to be at hand. The other children were healthy and vexed Barbara so she decided to punish them and herself and never speak to anyone again except a Rev. Paul Henkle, which she did. However; after he left, she spoke to no one until his return visit in 1789 when a group of women at the Thomas Copenhaver home urged him to rid her of her "dumb spirits." When Rev. Henkel arrived, he first administered communion to the older folks, then talked to Barbara in sign language. First Rev. Henkel told her she couldn't obtain heaven by fasting and praying---nothing happened. Then he knocked her bonnett off and asked why she wouldn't look anyone in the face---nothing happened. Finally, he commanded her to talk in the name of Jesus---which she did by repeating the Lord's prayer, following with the Creed and its explanation. Thereafter, she promised to speak directly to everyone.

* A copy of these land grants is in the hands of Rev. G.M. Goodpasture, Ferrum, Va. (the land was kept in the family until Sept 1951)

Barbara never married and apparantly remained in ill health throughout her life because in his will in 1800, John Phillippe directed that Barbara should be cared for by his sons, John and Christian to whom he had given his land.

Another interesting story of the early family was of "Aunt" Hester. "Aunt" Hester Phillippe saw some Indians on a raid so she guided the women and children deep into the woods and brushed out their tracks. Carrying her mountain rifle with her, Hester told the women and children to keep going up the mountain and she would watch the trail with her rifle. They slept in the woods overnight, and the next day a scout escorted them to Fort Chiswell. [4]

John Phillippe died 21 Oct 1800 leaving not only a great deal of land but also a legacy that would eventually turn into literally thousands of decendants---a challange to any genealogist to trace and track!

Besides his wife, John left most of his land to John and Christian and his personal property to his daughters. Christian then bought out the other brothers and sisters. No mention is made of Christopher so we assume he had an adequate estate of his own. As far as we can tell, Barbara and his eldest son, John, were the only children not to marry. (St. Paul's church records show John was Godfather at the babtism of his nephew, John--son of Christian--in 1805 and unmarried at the age of 45. Apparently, he lived at the homeplace until his father's death. No further records are found on him.

Although Maria Margaretha was the only known child of Old John's to leave the Wythe County (ie. Virginia) area and move to Pulaski County, Kentucky when she married Henry Bough, the third generation Phillippe's made their exodus into Kentucky, Tenn., Indiana, Illinois and Iowa in great numbers. We can only assume that although the families owned large areas of land, there still wasn't enough to support all of the numerous offspring. We are sure the "itch" to conqueor new frontiers also played a role. It is especially interesting to find the "different" branches of family represented in Knox County, Indiana.

We find Christina Arney Boyd, daughter of Mary and Sebastian Arney, and Peter Phillippe, the son of Christian, among the first Phillippe's in Indiana. The brothers of Peter's wife, Rebecca Fox Phillippe, "had gone out to Indiana and decided to stay." Back home in Virginia, people began to predict the mass exodus of the family to Indiana, "for where one Fox goes, all the rest follow." This proved to be true, and in 1832, Peter and Rebecca, with the families of her remaining brother and four of her five sisters, set out for Knox County.

After a difficult journey, which took them through the Old Boone Trail, Wilderness Road and the Cumberland Gap to Louisville, then to Vincennes by way of the Old Indiana Trace, the party reached Indiana in October of 1832 and settled in the Royal Oak area of Knox County. At first there were serious doubts as to whether they had arrived in enough time to finish building the necessary shelter before winter set in. Fortunately, winter was late that year, and when it did come, everyone had a warm place to live. Peter moved his family into their newly-built log house three days before the first snowfall. It proved to be a very severe winter, and once it started snowing, the people did not see the bare ground again until the next spring.

1833 was a big year in the lives of this family. On 23 June 1833, George Wampler Phillippe, the son of Peter and Rebecca, became the first member of the family to be born in Indiana. Later in the year, Peter and Rebecca moved from the Royal Oak neighborhood to what would become the Asbury Chapel area.

In Virginia, the husband of the one remaining Fox sister died leaving her with a small baby. Poor and alone in the world, with her family hundreds of miles away and with no means of reaching them, she decided that she would walk to Indiana. When spring came, she picked the baby up in her arms and started walking into a very uncertain future. It would take two summers to reach her family in Indiana, her only means of sustenance being the hospitality of strangers along the road. Finally, she had to find the means for spending the winter in Louisville, Ky. In the fall of that year, one of the Fox brothers made one of the periodic trips that someone made for everyone in the area to Louisville. On his last day in town, he met his sister with her baby who had just arrived in Louisville that morning. She was taken back by horseback to live with the rest of her family.

The same as every married couple, Peter and Rebecca had their differences. One of these concerned Peter's smoking. Rebecca was opposed to the use of tobacco in any form. One day deciding to break him of his filthy habit, she threw out his tobacco, burned his pipes, and hid the horses where she knew he couldn't find them. As soon as Peter found out what had happened, he walked to Bruceville and back in below freezing weather for more.

All nine children born to Peter and Rebecca grew to adulthood, considered to be a minor miracle at that time in history.

Peter Phillippe, Sr. died on 5 Feb 1854 leaving Rebecca on an impoverished farm with small children to raise. It was then that the nine children joined together in work. This resulted in so much prosperity that there was a separate farm for each of the six sons when they married.

Although Peter and Rebecca lived near the Chapel and were close relatives of many of its charter members, they were both Presbyterians. For this reason, they neither belonged to, nor are they buried at Asbury Chapel. Of their nine children, only Catharine, Ephriam and John were members of the Chapel.[8]

A few years after Peter's and Christina's arrival, William Henry Phillippe, son of Christopher, and Christina Vaught Horn, daughter of Christina Phillippe Vaught, came to Indiana--no doubt favorably impressed by the description of southern Indiana sent back by their cousins. They came by covered wagon over the Boone Trail and Wilderness Road to Louisville--with a side trip to Pulaski Co., Ky. to visit Christina's sister, Mary Vaught Carson and family. After crossing the Ohio, the families evidently followed the stage coach route over the old Indiana Trace from Louisville through Washington

She was a younger sister of the Christiana Phillippi who m George Vaught. George may have been an older brother of Christley and could have been asw much as 9-13 years older. Christley and Elizabeth m about 1780-81.

In 1774, Christley spent 68 days in Capt. Doak's Co., during the Shawnee Indian War. He must have been at least age 16 and b therebore before 1758. He was in Capt. Love's Co. 5 Apr 1781. In 1782, he was on the Montgomery Co., VA tax list. In 1789, he had land on the North Fork of the Holston River, Wy.Co., VA.

The will of Christley was dated 17 Mar 1828 Wy.Co., VA. and proved 9 Aug 1830. 'Being considerably advanced in years', 'Wife Elizabeth Vaught, one third of my estate; son George Vaught; dau. Barbara, who m Henry Copenhaver; dau, who m George West (by name) Elizabeth; dau. Descendants of Hans Phillippe

p1 of Gen-19 Christley Vaught

p2 of Gen-19 Francis Coley

Generation No. 1

1. HANS[1] PHILLIPPE[1,2] was born Abt. 1600, and died Aft. 1620. He married ANNA MARIA Abt. 1618. She was born Abt. 1600, and died Aft. 1620.

Notes for HANS PHILLIPPE:

An early letter (written in German) states that these Philippi's moved to Alsace from Switzerland in 1650. "European records of the family are sketchy. One story has us connected to King Louis XIV as being descendants of him and his second mistress —via the Duke of Orleans. This has not been documented however.
A charming, but totally unauthenticated family story has the original family patriarck in the army of Alexander The Great and stationed on the very western limits of the empire. Since he was from the gold mining town of PHILIPPI (named after Alexander's Father, King Philipp) he was known as ? (first name unknown) of Philippi. After retirement from the army, he decided to take up residence in what is now Switizerland near where he had served his duty, and had married a local woman and started a family. He worked as a guide along the trade route between the iron workers of the Northern European counties (France and Germany), and the merchants of Italy, Greece, etc. His name eventually was shortened to ? Philippi, which became the family surname.
Reverend Alexander Phillippe tells us that the ancestral home of the family (and this is more probable) was in Leipsic, Germany where men of this name occupied professional chairs in the University of Leipsic for 300 years. Since the family was traditionally Huguenot or Protestant, religious pressures of the day probably forced them to migrate to eastern France, southern Germany, Holland and finally to the United States."

Descendants of Hans Phillippe

Generation No. 5

8. JOHANNES[5] PHILLIPPI (JOHANNES[4], GEORGE HANS[3], PHILIP HENSEL[2] PHILIPP, HANS[1] PHILLIPPE) was born July 09, 1698 in Volksberg, Alsace, Germany (now France), and died Aft. 1738. He married MARIA CHRISTINA CLEISS Abt. 1720 in Alsace, France. She was born Abt. 1698, and died Aft. 1738.

Notes for JOHANNES PHILLIPPI:

The Phillippi family originated in southern Europe, in Germany. It is said that these Philippi's moved to Alsace from Switzerland in 1650, in a letter written (in German) when one of Johannes' sisters died. Passengers having the name Phillippi (or Phillipe, Philippi, or Philipy) are listed in shipping registers as having arrived in the New World in 1749, 1750, and 1764].
On Sep. 15, 1749 foreigners from Zweibruchen, Nassau, Wirtemberg and Palatinate arrived on the ship Phoenix, John Mason, Master, from Rotterdam, Georg Frantz Philippi among them.
On August 28, 1750 the ship the Phoenix, John Mason, Captain arrived in Philadelphia from Rotterdam, last from Cowes. Onboard were Johannes Phillipi, Johannes Phillipi Jr., Andreas Phillipi and Christian Philipy. About twelve names later is Johannes Philipi]. At this point it's probable that Johann Adam Philippi (b. Aug. 4, 1736) is a son, not a nephew of Johannes Phillipi with whom he sailed. If the latter is true, it is likely he is a son of Georg Frantz Philliippi and that he was following his father, who had emigrated the previous summer. This would make him a nephew of Johannes Philippi and Maria Christina Cleiss Philippi instead of a son as listed above. This position is held by some researchers. So we are left with a shipping register that shows clearly that Johannes Philipi arrived onboard the ship Phoenix with an elder Johannes Phillippi. Was that man his father or his uncle? If his father, then young Johannes inadvertently signed the register separately, possibly not realizing his father had already listed him. If his uncle, then it's natural to have signed his own name since no direct guardians were on the ship with him. (He was about 14 years old at the time -- or possibly 18 years old.) I don't think we'll ever know for sure. There are pros and cons for each. It is matter of looking at all the data and deciding which you think is right. And as you can see form this book I believe that our Johanne Adam was the son of Johanne Phillippi.

13. JOHANN ADAM[6] PHILLIPPI (JOHANNES[5], JOHANNES[4], GEORGE HANS[3], PHILIP HENSEL[2] PHILIPP, HANS[1] PHILLIPPE) was born August 04, 1736 in Alsace, France, and died October 21, 1800 in Wythe Co., VA. He married MARIA BARBARA EVA EICHELBERGER August 02, 1757 in Lancaster Co., PA[9], daughter of JOHANNES EICHELBERGER and ANNA ILLIG. She was born July 18, 1741 in Warwick Twp., Lancaster Co., PA, and died October 09, 1823 in Wythe Co., VA.

Notes for JOHANN ADAM PHILLIPPI:

John came over on the ship Phoenix in 1750 . It departed from Rotterdam and John and his father were listed as Johannes Phillippi and Johannes Phillippi Jun. The earliest record of John is his marriage in Lancaster Co., PA, Warwick Twp. to Maria Eva Barbara Eva Eichelberger. Their daughter Maria Margaretta was baptized in PA May 1769. In about 1774 or 75 they were living in what is today Wythe Co., VA where he farmed.
He served in the Rev. War , in Capt. Buchanan's Company Militia Montgomery County, Virginia.
Johann had been born in Alsace, France and emigrated to America with his father and family. He moved to Wythe County, VA from York County, PA where his family had settled in 1732 when the Phillippes had migrated there from France. German speaking natives of Alsace, France they intermarried with and took on the habits of their Pennsylvania Dutch neighbors. When these people began settling the Piedmont area of VA, John Phillippe was the first to come to western Virginia, John and Eva having joined the westward migration at the close of the Rev. War.
In about 1774-75 John and family were living in what is now Wythe County, VA where he farmed. He was an elder in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Wythe County, VA. Some records were found in Montgomery County at Christianburg, VA. Other records at the Wythe County Courthouse. The birth and baptismal records were found in Warwick Lutheran Church records in Philadelphia, PA.

Notes for SOPHIA BARBARA PHILLIPPE:

The Kegley Library at the college at Wytheville, VA records that John's daughter Barbara, after attending Catechetical instruction for two weeks became very scrupulous and extremely conscientious. She was weak and imagined death was near. The other children were healthy and vexed Barbara so she decided to punish them and never speak again except to Rev. Paul Hinkle. This had to be Sophia Barbara, since the first child of John died in a little over a month after she was born. And the record states that in 1789, when a group of women at the Thomas Copenhaver home, Rev. Hinkle first administered communion, talked to Barbara in sign language, and tried to talk her out of her "dumb spirits" as the women called it , to no avail. He finally became frustrated and knocked her bonnet off, and then commanded her to speak in the name of Jesus, which she did repeating the Lord's Prayer, following the Creed and it's explanation. Thereafter she spoke to everyone.

He married ELIZABETH STEFFEY March 06, 1787 in Montgomery Co., VA, daughter of JOHN STEFFEY and ANNA MARIA. She was born March 1768 in Lancaster Co., PA, and died October 22, 1856 in Wythe Co., VA.

Notes for CHRISTOPHER STOPHELL PHILLIPPI:
Records exist stating he resided there 78 years in 1852, which would mean he was 12 when he moved. He served in the Revolutionary War in the Virginia Regiment beginning in 1780 but was ineligible for a pension as it was less than 6 monthes service. Records exist that he applied for a pension in 1841 and again in 1852. He was given a Land Grant in Wythe Co., VA in 1855 for Revolutionary War service.

Land Grant: The land grant was made to Stophel Phillippe from Andrew Erwin (Irvine) heir at law to John Irwine, deceased-- "A certain tract or parcel of land containing 196 acres by survey, bearing the date of the 19th of February, 1774, living in the County of Wythe (formerly Fincastle) on a branch of Cripple Creek, probably Gray's Branch." The bounds are given from tree to tree and could not be pertinent now; it concludes by saying, "it being part of an order fo Council granted to the Soyal Company to take up and survey 800,000 acres, which order was established and confirmed by a decree of the Court of Appeals made in the City of Richmond, VA on the 2nd of May, 1783." The grant or deed is signed by John Tyler, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, the 10th day of January, 1810. The Other Land Grant: This grant was made to Daniel Pearce the 2nd day of December, 1785 and signed by Patrick Henry. This land was handed down from Christopher (Stophel) to his son, Joseph, and then to his son, Lewis King. At settlement of the latter estate around 1907, sold to two of the sons namely Ephriam Marion Phillippe and Thomas King Phillippe, it was divided into two parcels. Marion taking the old home place and Thomas King, the so-called upper part, where he built a house and barn. Marion later sold out and moved to the Valley of Virginia, near Staunton. Thomas was forced to sell on Sept. 1,1951, due to failing health, and no longer being able to hire farm labor. Thomas's brother was heartbroken to lose his ground and when the land was sold, bought an acre of the prettiest part, but later when his health failed, he too had to sell. Reverend Marion Glenn Goodpasture of Ferrum College, Ferrum, VA owns the original land grant.

Baptism 2: December 25, 1763, Emanuel Lutheran Church, PA

Notes for GEORGE VAUGHT:
George Vaught is a known son of Andrew Vaught and his wife Elizabeth. Item (3) above list George as teste. If he had to be 18 to be teste, then he was b by 1745. His wife was Christiana Phillippi, d/o John and Barbara (Eichelberger) Phillippi.

George and Christiana may have m about 1781. Christiana's age is consistant with a wife of third generation Vaughts, rather than second generation Vaughts. The fractur (birth certificate) for Andrew referred to previously states that the child Andrew is the s/o George and Christiana (Phillippi) Vaught, and is the grandson of Andrew Vaught and his wife Elizabeth. There is a considerable age difference between George and Christiana.

During the 1774 Shawnee Indian War, George spent 41 days in Smith's Company.

In 1775, George settled on Cripple Creek, Wy.Co., VA. George was mustered out of the Continental Army because he had a flour mill. Flour was needed and it was felt that he could serve best at home. However, in 1781, he was in Capt. Love's Co.

The will of George Vaught was dated 13 Mar 1825 and proved 11 Aug 1835. "Wife Christiana completely and fully to possess all my property. After her death sons David, John Andrew, George, Peter and Charles and dau. Mary to be paid one dollar each, they having been already provided for. My son Joseph $30.00, my sons Abraham and Jefferson to have all my land and my mill with the exception of one acre and a saw mill that I have given to my two sons Charles and Joseph. Sons Abraham and Jefferson to pay to my two daughters Elizabeth and Christiana $280.00" (see page 244 Kirkwood, in the section recording "A Partial History of the Vaught Family" by Judge Edgar S. Vaught)11. George VAUGHT9 was born about 1745 in Augusta Co., VA. He died about 11 Aug. 1835 in Wythe Co., VA. (Pp. 7-8, from MS, Feb. 1, 1994, by Helen Spurlin, now deceased), tentatively titled "Moving in on the Cherokees" or "Neighbors to the Cherokees".)

George Vaught, s/o Andrew and Elizabeth Vaught, was b ca 1745 in Augusta Co., VA. He appears as teste on a document in 1763. (see Chalkley item 3 above) If he had to be 21 to be a "teste" then he was b ca 1742. If he only needed to be 18 then he was b ca 1745. George married Christiana Phillippi, a daughter of John and Barbara (Eichelberger) Phillippi. They married ca 1781. A deed dated 9 Oct. 1823 Wythe Co., VA has the following "...between Christopher Phillipy and Elizabeth his wife, George

Dear Ms. Jordan,

In the Family Registry at an LSD library I found your name and address on file seeking information on Francis Coley, (b. May 15,1783) N.C., d. 1824 (Sept. 25, Wythe Co.) Va., married (Wythe Co.,Va. May 28) 1824, Sarah Vaught.

That's all I know about Francis Coley, but I have recently found that Sarah Vaught's parents were Christian and Elizabeth Phillippi Vaught. I have some Phillippi history and a book is being printed about Christian Vaught's family.

Hopefully, someone was more helpful with the Coley line, and hopefully, you will share some Coley history as I will the the Vaught or Phillippi if you are interested.

Sincerely,

Sarah Crowl

P.S. Francis and Sarah Vaught Coley were my great-great-grandparents.

Dear Mary:

Thank you for answering my letter. I can have perfect empathy with you about working many years without anyone to help and then all of a sudden, it seems, you have two or maybe even three people that are working on your line!!

It seems that I always know more about the family but there is always that off chance that my correspondant may have a little clue that will help. Anyway, I'm always glad to share anything I can....I've had the fun of digging it out.

I appreciate the group sheets and at this time I don't have any questions. Christmas and the Holidays have taken over and I won't be doing much genealogical thinking until the New YEAR.

If you happen to find the Eichelberger pages that you mentioned in your letter, please put them in the enclosed envelope and then I'll try to digest them before I write again.

Have a good Holiday Season, at my age (60), I really should prefer the greeting of a Healthy Season and New Year.

Sincerely,

November 10, 1984

Mrs. Vivian Hill Jordan

Dear Vivian,

Sorry for this long delay, health problems, in the family, but all things are getting better. Have a lot of work here to catch-up on. I have the book, "They Came to Kentucky" had exchanged material with her back in the '60's.

Have nothing more on your line than what was in the book.

Enclosing two Family Group Sheets, if you want more on these will gladly send them.

Couldn't quickly find my Eichelberger pages, know it should be here, but it has been so long since I had time to get into this; am sure they will turn up.

Very glad to find another Vaught relative, for many years, couldn't find them. But have had a lot of help the past ten.

Will continue trying to get things in order, so next letter can be answered more quickly.

Thanks again for writing, Good Luck to you.

Sincerely,

Mary

WAMPLER FAMILY HISTORY 1701 - 1980

by

Fred Wampler

Hans Peter Wamfler (Wampler) was born in Germany in 1701 and was married ca 1721 in Germany to Anna Veronica _____. Aboard the ship LYDIA, he was among the Germany passengers from the Palatinate and among those who had sworn allegiance to the British Crown upon arrival on September 29, 1741 in Philadelphia. He brought with him his wife and 6 (known) children.

Only male passengers 16 and above were listed. Hans Peter Wampfler Sr. was 40 years of age, Hans Peter Jr. was 18 and Hans Michael was 16. Hans Peter Wampfler Sr. died in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania prior to April 24, 1749.

This book deals primarily with descendants of Hans Michael Wampfler (1725-1789). Michael Wampfler, along with Martin Kimberling, Michael Steffey and John Phillippi were the Elders who founded St.Paul's Lutheran Church in Rural Retreat, Virginia. This was about 1782. St.Paul's is still an active Church in Rural Retreat.

This study includes records from Southwestern Virginia counties of Botetourt, Dickenson, Grayson, Lee, Montgomery, Russell, Wchoot, Smyth, Tazewell, Washington, Wise and Wythe. Some families with whom the Wamplers intermarried were Addington, Beverley, Boggs, Broadwater, Burton, Dougherty, Francisco, Gray, Henry, Hillman, Kilgore, King, Kinser, McClellan, McConnell, Moore, Porter, Quillen, Reedy, Sanders (Saunders), Skeens, Snodgrass, Stallard, Stanger, Steffey, Wells, Wheatley, Wolfe, Wood and others.

Copies of census records, inventory lists, land surveys, wills and other records are included. The book is well documented including a biliography. A gift copy from the author to the Southwestern Virginia Genealogical Society has been placed in the Virginia Room of the Roanoke City Public Library.

The book has a hard cover and contains 120 pages. A copy may be ordered from the author, Dr. Fred B. Wampler, 479 Pruitt Ave., Los Alamos, NM 87544. The price is $16.00 postpaid.

[Endorsed:]

This is a true List of Passengers, imported in the Ship William & Sarah, Will[m] Hill, Mast[r] from Rotterdam, among whom are no convicts.

Given upon oath,

by Tho. Tober.

"At a Council held at the courthouse of Philadelphia, September 21st, 1727, . . . A signed list was laid before the Board, of the Names of one hundred & nine Palatines, who with their families, making in all about four hundred Persons, were imported into this Province in the Ship William and Sarah, William Hill, Master, from Rotterdam, but last from Dover, as by Clearance from the Officers of his Majesties Customs there; And the said Master being asked, if he had any license from the Court of Great Britain for transporting those People, & what their Intentions were in coming hither, said that he had no other License or Allowance for their Transportation than the above Clearance, and that he believed they designed to settle in this Province. They were then called in, and the several Persons whose names were subjoyned did repeat & subscribe the foregoing Declaration."

From the Minutes of the Provincial Council, printed in Colonial Records, vol. III, p. 283.

ALEXANDER NISBETT OF DEAN HALL IN SOUTH CAROLINA AND OF DEAN SCOTLAND BARONET

Alexander Nisbett came to Carolina at some date before 1725, for in that year he bought certain contiguous tracts of land to which plantation he gave the name of Dean Hall, evidently taken from the estate of Dean in Scotland. What his business was has not been shown, but he held, as shown by the record, quite a number of mortgages, making it evident that he controlled or had the use of a good deal of money.

He married Mary Rutherfurd, daughter of Sir John Rutherfurd, and sister of Mr. Robert Rutherfurd later of Fairnington and of Mr. Walter Rutherfurd of New York. Mr. Robert Rutherfurd died 1794 and Mr. Walter Rutherfurd in 1804.

Of Sir Alexander's eldest son Henry nothing is known, but as the baronetcy seems to have been held in 1764 by his second son John, it must be presumed that Henry either predeceased his father or died without male issue.

Of the youngest son Alexander nothing appears on the records in Carolina.

From a mortgage recorded in Charles Town in the Mesne Conveyance Office, dated 15 Dec. 1744 (See Book BB, p. 44), it is recited that the land had been conveyed to Anthony White, Jr. by Alexander Nisbett, late of Charles Town, through his Attorneys James Michie and James Akin. It may be inferred that he had not then succeeded to the Baronetcy and that he was then probably in Britain.

It may be interesting to remember that this James Michie was Speaker of the Commons House in 1753–4, Member of the King's Council in 1756, and Chief Justice in 1759. (See McCrady's South Carolina under the Royal Government).

At what date Sir Alexander returned to South Carolina is not known.

In the South Carolina Gazette of 8th October, 1753, we find a very short notice of his death as follows: "Yesterday died Sir Alexander Nisbett;" and in the Register of St. Philip's Parish we find "1753—Oct. 8—Then was buried Sir Alexander Nisbett."

Lady Nisbett must have been in Charles Town at this time, for on 8 May, 1754 Mrs. Manigault entered in her diary a visit from her. (See So. Ca. Hist. Mag. Vol. 20—p. 58.)

It may be well to quote here what Playfair tells us about the two cadet branches of the Dean family. The grandfather of Sir Alexander of Dean and of Dean Hall in South Carolina was Henry Nisbett who left three sons (1) James, the father of Sir Alexander, (2) ———— Nisbett whose descendants were called "of Craigintinie," (3) ———— Nisbett, whose descendants were called "of Dirleton." The two last named families bore the arms of Dean with differences to show cadency.

A plantation in Georgetown County on Peedee River is still called "Dirleton," but it is not known by whom or when it was settled.

Of the lives of Sir John and Dame Maria Nisbett between 1799 and May 1821 little is known. He continued through that time to own Dean Hall, but most probably lived in Britain until the last date when he sold Dean Hall plantation to Mr. William A. Carson.

But his brother Alexander appears to have remained in Carolina, and at his death on 27 January 1813 in his 42nd year resided on the Dean Hall plantation, as shown by the inscription on his tombstone at Strawberry Chapel on the Cooper River.

In his will, dated 3 March 1812, he described himself as "of Dean Hall, in St. John's Parish, South Carolina" and left his whole estate real and personal to his wife Abigail, who also was named sole Executrix. What Mrs. Nisbett's maiden name was does not appear, but in her will, proved in 1819, she mentions a niece Laura Kelly, and a half-sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly, while her daughter, Caroline M. Nisbett is named as residuary legatee and Sole executrix. The executrix qualified as Caroline M. Philippe, late Nisbett.

From deeds on record Jean B. Philippe and wife Caroline Matilda Philippe, before marriage called Caroline M. Nisbett, conveyed in 1820 to Francis Laborde a large lot on Meeting and Columbus Streets, known as the Botanic Garden, which, apparently after some litigation, had passed to her under the will of her mother, Mrs. Abigail Nisbett.

The Dean Hall plantation remained in the possession of Sir John Nisbett until 1 May 1821.

On that date Sir John Nisbett of Dean in Scotland with Dame Maria Nisbett his wife by his Attorney William Meen (sic) conveyed for a consideration of $40,000 to William A. Carson the Dean Hall plantation of 3100 acres.

Marching Order to Capt. DeTurck.

The following order was issued by Col. Henry Haller to Capt. Daniel DeTurck, directing him to march his company to Amboy :

By Henry Haller, Esq., Colonel of the Regiment raising in Berks County, to compose part of the quota of the troops which is to be furnished by Pennsylvania for the Flying Camp.

To Daniel Turck, Esq., Captain of a Company in the said Battalion :

You are directed to march your company the nearest and best way to Amboy in the Jerseys with all expedition that lies in your power, where you are to join the Pennsylvania forces and then to apply to the Commander in Chief for the time being for further orders.

You are to place guards over the baggage wagons, who are to be furnished with powder and ball, but must not load without necessity. The Guards always to be accountable and must deliver over the Ammunition which they have received to the succeeding guard.

The men to be restrained as much as possible from drinking too much strong liquor or committing the least insult on the inhabitants of the places through which they march.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Reading ye 23rd August, 1776.

{ SEAL. } { S. & P. L. } HENRY HALLER.

In pursuance of this order, Capt. DeTurck proceeded with his company from Reading on August 24, 1776. The roll of the company was as follows :

Roll of DeTurck's Company.

The foregoing 72 men entered the service on August 26, 1776, for two months, excepting the following: Charles Gobin, George Phillippi, Joseph Billings, John Hesch, Christian Fischer and Paul Steph, who joined the company in September. All were discharged on October 26th.

The monthly pay of the men was as follows: Captain, £15; Lieutenants, £10, 2sh., 6d.; Sergeants, £3; Corporals and Fifer, £2, 15sh.; and privates £2, 10sh.

These facts were taken from the original pay roll which I inspected. It was entitled : "A Pay Roll of Capt. Daniel DeTurck's Company of Militia of the Third Class of Berks County, commanded by Col. Michael Lindemuth." Col. Henry Spyker, the Paymaster, paid the men in 1778.

Capt. DeTurck is mentioned as of Oley, but he was from Alsace.

Order to Organize.—His company was slow in organizing, and it may be that the men misunderstood the resolution of Congress in reference to raising troops for the service. Col. Haller had issued the following order to him :

READING, July 12, 1776.

Dear Sir:—The inhabitants of Berks County being indifferent to organizing a volunteer militia, it becomes necessary that we should take similar action as the other counties, or suffer such disgrace that it will not be forgotten if it do not cause our entire ruin.

In behalf of the good name of Berks County, to avoid any further delay, and especially to serve the public welfare, we should not neglect the distinct order of the Honorable Congress any longer.

Therefore I direct you to call your company together on next Sunday without fail and then make a proper step forward. Your help in this matter will be expected without fail. An officer from here will be in attendance, but you must let me know as soon as possible the time and place where you propose to meet.

I am, my dear sir, your friend and servant,

HENRY HALLER.

To Captain Daniel Duerck.

This order was written in German. It was evidently prepared by some scrivener and issued by Col. Haller as a common form for all the captains.

"that the Continental stables and a large store house might be converted into barracks to advantage by raising them about two feet and underpinning with stone, by which it would make them two stories, and, with some small additions, would shelter the whole of the troops. However, this would be attended with inconvenience, as their fire wood must be waggoned, but not any considerable distance. My [Wood's] intention is if the troops are to be hutted, and the Quarter Master can procure tools and a person acquainted with building to superintend the work, to have them built by the troops and in such a manner as to be of use upon any other or future occasion."

The stable was 20 by 175 feet, and the store house 20 by 60 feet.

Krause's Company on Guard Duty.

The following detachment of Capt. Charles Krause's Company of the 1st Battalion Berks County Militia was detailed on August 13, 1781, to guard the Convention prisoners of war near Reading, from August 16 to October 16, 1781. The captain was paid the balance due, £277, on April 28, 1790:

Additional Men as Guard.

After peace was declared, a petition was presented to the Executive Council, subscribed by forty-three names, which prayed for an allowance to pay for military services rendered. The petitioners set forth that they had been ordered out to guard the Convention Troops upon constant service from 1781 until peace happened; that these troops were prisoners of war confined in the vicinity of Reading; that the militia of that district had performed constant guard duty during the stay of the prisoners, to the great hinderance of their several occupations, with a firm reliance that their country would make such satisfaction as the Militia laws should entitle them; and that they had made numerous applications for pay, but their efforts were in vain.

The subscribing names were as follows:

John Folweiler.	Philip Ruppert.	Henry Spengler.
George Eisenbeis.	Jacob Stahle.	Peter Stichter.
George Gerdner.	Conrad Geist.	Abraham Phillippi.
Nicholas Scherrer.	Henry Miller.	George Seitz.
Stephen Fitterer.	Daniel Hiester.	Alexander Klinger.
George Young.	John Phillippi.	John Shenfelder.
Michael Reifsnyder.	Henry Hahn, Jr.	Benjamin Parks, Jr.
Jacob Merch.	George Snell.	John Seitter.
William Mears.	John Felix.	Jacob Klingman.
Philip Weiss.	George Brendlinger.	Jacob Kesel.
Jacob Petery.	Bernard Kepner.	Ernst Gries.

David Herman.	Andrew Eisenbeis.	George Shoemaker.
George Roland.	Adam Spohn.	John Lewis.
Godfried Leman.	Jonas Baum.
Gottlieb Christian.	Valentine Boyer.

I could not find that any action was taken on this petition. Conrad Geist, one of the petitioners, had commanded a company as captain which served as guard of prisoners in 1776.

The above names may not represent all the men who served at that time, for some may have died or moved away between the declaration of peace and the signing of the petition.

From the contents of the petition, we must conclude that the militia of the county, especially from the vicinity of Reading, (which constituted the 1st Battalion under the command of Col. Nicholas Lotz), were in constant service of this kind, and judging from other evidence of men in that service, they were detailed for short terms.

Continental Troops as Guard.

Maj.-Gen'l Lincoln, Minister of the War Department, informed the Executive Council on January 2, 1782, that Gen'l Hazen's Regiment was appointed to guard the prisoners in the counties of Lancaster, Berks and York, whereupon the Council directed the Lieutenants of the said counties to discharge the militia then on duty so soon as the Continental troops should take charge of the prisoners.

Militia as Guard for Military Prisoners.

On February 23, 1782, the Lieutenant of the county was ordered to call out the first class of militia to guard the military prisoners at Reading ; but only 40 men were wanted at a time for this purpose. The order was as follows :

"Ordered, That the Lieutenant of the county of Berks be directed to call out a class of the militia of the said county, for the purpose of guarding the military prisoners of that county ; that as forty men are only wanted at one time for the said purpose, the lieutenant be directed to call out no more than that number, and that the battalion be called up in their numerical order, beginning at the first, for the said one class, so far as may be necessary to furnish the said number ; and when the time of the first forty shall expire, he then call on the next battalion or battalions for the like number, so as to have the succeeding numbers ready to take charge of the said prisoners when the time of the first shall expire, and so on until the said one class shall have served their tour of duty, or until further orders from this Council."

Nagel's Company on Guard Duty.

The following detachment of Capt. Peter Nagel's Company, in the 6th Battalion of Berks County Militia, was on duty guarding prisoners of war who were conducted from Reading to Philadelphia. I could not ascertain the time when the service was rendered. It was probably on September 19, 1782, when they were ordered to "mount guard."

room. A stocking, rolled up in a ball, was given to the young women, who, one after another, went to the foot of the bed and, standing with their backs to the foot board, would throw the stocking over their shoulders at the bride's head. The first one that succeeding in striking her head or cap was to be the one next married. The young men, in a similar manner, and with the same motive, would throw the stocking at the groom's head.

Among the Lutherans and Calvinists, dancing and similar forms of amusement were common, particularly at their wedding parties. Occasionally these seasons of festivity and rejoicing were kept up for two or three weeks together. Among the Dunkers and Mennonites, dancing and similar modes of entertainment were very uncommon. Most of them were remarkable for their strict adherence to the "non-conformity" principles of their religion that forbid dancing and similar customs.

All the Germans, as a rule, were careful early to instruct their children in the different principles and ceremonies of their religions, and in their recognized habits and customs.

VIII. Religious Life of the Valley Germans.

Most of the Germans that settled in the Valley were church members, and the sects represented among them were the Quakers, Mennonites, Dunkers, German Calvinists or Reformed, and Lutherans.

The number of German Quakers, or Quakers of any nationality, in the Valley was always very small; although the few that came were among the first settlers. Alexander Ross, a Quaker, obtained a grant of land near the present site of Winchester, in the year 1732, or thereabouts. A few other localities were settled wholly or in part by this sect, but the aggregate number was not large; and at the present day the number of Quakers in the Valley must be very small, for I have not been able to learn the whereabouts of any, except of a small community at Winchester, this community, doubtless, containing the survivors of the Ross settlement of 1732. The Friends of Winchester have a very neat and tasteful meeting-house on Washington and Piccadilly Streets.

The Germans of what is now Page county were originally almost all Mennonites. They were remarkable for their strict adherence to all the moral and religious observances required by their sect, and the same qualities are characteristic of them to the present day. A large number of Mennonties settled also in what is now Rockingham county. At the present time the descendants of these early settlers form populous communities in the western portions of that county.

The Dunkers located principally in Shenandoah, Rockingham, Augusta and Botetourt counties, where there descendants are numerous to-day.

Inasmuch as the general reader is apt to be less familiar with this sect than with the others herein mentioned, it may not be out of place to give here a brief sketch of the Dunker Brotherhood. The sect grew out of the great religious awakening that occurred in Germany during the closing years of the seventeenth century, when large numbers of people, becoming dissatisfied with the lack of spirituality in the State Church, withdrew from its communion and met in separate societies for the worship of God. They were called Separatists or Pietists, and among them were to be found such men as Jacob Phillip Spenner, Herman Francke, founder of the Orphans' Home and School at Halle, Ernest Christian Hochman, Alexander Mack, and many others whose names have become historically prominent. The Pietists were bitterly persecuted by the Catholic and Reformed churches, and were driven from place to place until finally Count Cassimir, of Witgenstein, opened a place of refuge for them in his province. Here, in the little village of Schwartzennan, Alexander Mack and others, similarly inclined, met together to read and study the Word. They mutually agreed to lay aside all existing creeds, confessions of faith, catechisms, etc., and search for the truth in God's Book, and to follow as that truth revealed should lead them. They were led to adopt the simple Word, particularly the New Testament Scriptures, as their creed, and to declare in favor of a literal observance of all the commandments of Christ. In 1708 a small company, eight souls, were baptized in the river Eder, by trine immersion. The church was organized with Alexander Mack as its first minister. In 1719 the Brethren, as they called themselves, began emigrating to America, and in less than ten years the entire church was settled in the vicinity of Germantown and Philadelphia. From this nucleus in the New World, the churches spread southward and westward, and are to-day most numerous in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas. For a number of years the church, as a whole, opposed Sunday Schools, higher education and foreign missions, although there were some highly educated men, Christopher Sower, and others, among the early members of the church, but now their foreign missionaries are in different parts of Europe and Asia, and there are at least ten colleges, under the direction of the church, in the United States. The official name of the sect is the "German Baptist Brethren." "Tunker," "Dunker" and "Dunkard" are only nicknames derived from the practice of immersion in baptism.

The Dunkers organized a church in Augusta county first, in the year 1790, with Bishop Miller as the first minister in charge. Churches were organized in Botetourt and Rockingham counties about the same time. The oldest church house in the Valley, now standing, is Garber's Church, about two miles west of Harrisonburg, in Rockingham county. It was built about the close of the eighteenth century, and has been in constant use ever since. Some of the first ministers at the Garber Church were Benjamin Bowmon, Daniel Garber, John Kagey, and Peter Nead.

The Quakers, Mennonites and Dunkers were all plain, honest, industrious people, and opposed to war, intemperance and slavery.

Towards the close of the seventeenth, and in the early part of the eighteenth, century, numerous immigrations of French Huguenots and German Calvinists, or Reformists, under the leadership of Claude Philippe de Richebourg, came to America from Elsace and Lorraine. These were industrious and pious people, and they scattered successively over Tidewater Virginia, Midland, and the Shenandoah Valley. In the Valley they met with other German and Huguenot elements and mingled with them. The Reformed* sect thus came into the Valley from various sources, and in considerable numbers; and it is probable the Revolution, was served in the pastorship by the descendants of Gerhard Henkel, of Germanna, the first German preacher in Virginia. The New Market Lutheran pastors were, Paul Henkel, Ambrosius Henkel, David Henkel, and Socrates Henkel, who is probably still living. Ambrosius Henkel, in 1806, founded the Henkel Printing House, of which note has been made. The Henkels also preached at Old Zion, mentioned above, the church house near Hamburg—about twelve miles north of New Market—held jointly at first by the Lutherans and Reformed.*

St. John's Lutheran Church, at Martinsburg, Berkeley county, was founded about 1776. A church record book, the joint property of the Lutheran and Reformed congregations, who worshipped in the same house 'till 1832, is still in existence, bearing date of 1779. The first record in it is of the baptism of Magdalena Frantz, February 25, 1779. There was no resident pastor until 1790, but the services were faithfully conducted by ministers of the Lutheran Church, who visited the congregation at Martinsburg as often as their duties to other congregations, scattered over several counties, would allow. The first regular pastor was the Rev. Christian Streit, already mentioned in other connections. He resided at Winchester. In 1790 Rev. John David Young located at Martinsburg, and succeeded Mr. Streit in charge of the church at that place.

The first Lutheran church in Augusta county was known as Trinity, or Coiner's Church, and was built, in 1780, on a branch of the Shenandoah river, five miles southwest of Waynesboro. The first minister was probably the Rev. Adolph Spindle. The trustees and organizers of the church were Casper Koiner, Martin Bush and Jacob Barger. The next Lutheran church organized in the county was at Mt. Tabor, near Middlebrook, the church house being built in 1785.

In 1795, or thereabouts, Dr. Georg Daniel Flohr was pastor among the German settlements on New river, and particularly at the Swiss colony at New Bern, Pulaski county. In Wythe county, adjoining on the southwest, a German Lutheran church was established, in 1792, on land donated by Stophel Zimmermann and John Davis, and owned jointly by the Lutherans and Reformed.

* There was also a Lutheran church at Rude's Hill, three miles northeast of New Market, in which Rev. Mr. Muhlenberg had regular meetings prior to the Revolution.

Schuricht quotes the following, from an article written by Rev. Alex. Phillippi, D. D., and published, by request of the Lutheran Pastor's Association of Wythe county, in the Wytheville Dispatch, of April 9, 1897:

"After 1732, the Germans, mostly from Pennsylvania, came in considerable numbers to the lower Valley of Virginia and slowly extended themselves into the southwestern part of the State, so that at the time of the outbreaking of the Revolutionary war, several considerable settlements had been formed in what now Wythe and adjoining counties. These settlements, after the close of the war, received numerous additions from Pennsylvania, Maryland and the lower Valley of Virginia. The early Germans who came to Wythe county, with few exceptions, had some means, and were a hardy, industrious, moral, intelligent Christian people. The Bibles, some very costly and beautiful copies, which they brought with them, are still found in possession of their posterity, with many other useful and religious books, had a place in almost every family. Schoolhouses, which for the time were also used as places of public worship, were among the first and most expensive buildings erected. With few exceptions these people were Protestants, nearly equally divided between the Lutheran and the German Reformed churches. For reasons not fully understood at this day, the colonists failed to secure and bring with them into their new homes pious and capable pastors and teachers, and for twenty-five or more years religion and education were not only greatly neglected in these feeble and scattered communities [but were also often abused] by incapable and immoral, godless leaders."

Rev. Mr. Phillippi also relates that the following German Lutheran churhes were established: The St. John's Lutheran Church one mile north of Wytheville; and, twelve miles west, St. Paul's Church; that in 1796 Rev. Leonard Willy became pastor of Cedar Grove Church, in Smyth County, and of Kimberling, St. Paul's, and St. John's in Wythe county.

In 1799 Rev. Dr. Flohr, already mentioned, accepted a call to the Lutheran churches in southwest Virginia, and located at
